

SEEING EYE TO EYE

JANA CHYTILOVA, THE OTTAWA CITIZEN

Seven-year-old Vincent Amamkwah gets a closer look at a butterfly during Carleton University's 10th annual live butterfly exhibition on Saturday. The event features exotic tropical butterflies flying free in two display greenhouses at the Nesbitt Biology Building. People can view the butterflies from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily until Oct. 12.
