Introduction

The background features a solid red upper section. Below this, a series of thick, wavy lines in black and red create a dynamic, layered effect. The lines flow from the left side towards the right, with the top-most line being black and the subsequent lines alternating between red and black. The overall composition is modern and graphic.

Telling the Carleton Story in a clear, consistent and compelling way

Carleton University was founded in 1942 to serve the community and educate returning World War II veterans. In the years since, Carleton has grown into one of the most resourceful and productive hubs of learning and growth. Consistently ranked as one of the best comprehensive universities in the country, Carleton is a research-intensive school with exciting programs and a strong community of more than 35,000 staff, faculty, and students.

While members of our community know of Carleton's great achievements, there are many who are unfamiliar with all the exciting things happening here. To ensure Carleton creates and maintains a strong profile and reputation with key audiences, we must tell our story clearly, consistently and in a compelling way. We must be bold in highlighting our achievements and stay true to our values.

This document provides guidance on how to tell and reflect the Carleton story in an authentic and engaging way. Through the use of consistent visuals and language, we will build brand equity and solidify a strong reputation for Carleton.

Just as Carleton has changed over the years, the Carleton brand will continue to evolve. Over time, these guidelines will be updated to reflect that.

Brand

The image features a solid red background. In the upper left quadrant, the word "Brand" is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The lower half of the image is dominated by several thick, wavy, black lines that flow from the left side towards the right, creating a sense of movement and depth. These lines are layered, with some appearing in front of others, and they curve and undulate across the bottom of the frame.

What is a brand?

Simply put, a brand is how people feel about an organization or institution. It is the sum of knowledge and experiences somebody has that determines the place Carleton holds in their mind — or in other words, our reputation.

While many factors beyond these guidelines contribute to the Carleton brand — telling our authentic story consistently can help shape the place Carleton occupies in people's minds. The following elements are used to create a shared understanding of exactly what Carleton is, and how this is expressed to the world.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Brand → Fundamentals

POSITIONING STATEMENT

A positioning statement is crafted to articulate how we want to present Carleton to the world.

A compassionate and connected community with a shared vision for purposeful change — and the intelligence and drive to make it happen.

VISION

This is the vision from Carleton's Strategic Integrated Plan that the brand must support.

Carleton University will leverage the power of higher education to be a force for good.

PROMISE

A brand promise communicates what others can expect to experience when they engage with us.

To be a smart, caring community that inspires and empowers change leaders to positively impact our world.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Brand → Values

Our brand values are the standards or principles Carleton believes in and is governed by.

Compassion

EMPATHY | EQUITY | INCLUSION

We will be a catalyst for good.

Purpose

RELEVANCE | ACCOUNTABILITY | SUSTAINABILITY

We will create change we are proud of.

Originality

AUTHENTICITY | IMAGINATION | CONFIDENCE

We will embrace what makes us unique.

Partnership

ENGAGEMENT | CONNECTION | COLLABORATION

We will work and succeed together.

Vision

AGILITY | ENTREPRENEURIALISM | INITIATIVE

We will bring new ideas to life.

Brand → Personality

Our brand personality informs how we look, sound, and behave. Consider the following personality traits we try to demonstrate in communications for Carleton.

Smart

INSIGHTFUL | RESOURCEFUL | EFFECTIVE

Compassionate

GENEROUS | EMPATHETIC | INCLUSIVE

Down to earth

HONEST | AUTHENTIC | ACCESSIBLE

Dynamic

ACTIVE | ENGAGING | VIBRANT

Brand → Tone of voice

An important part of how we present Carleton to the world is through the language that we use. Everything we say should reflect our brand and feel like it's coming from the same place. The following tone of voice characteristics describe how Carleton sounds when it speaks — both in writing and aloud.

Confident & engaged

At Carleton, there are a lot of exciting things happening that are positioning us to lead purposeful change. We shouldn't shy away from proudly sharing these stories with our audiences.

Warm & welcoming

A defining part of Carleton is the strong community of staff, faculty, and students. We are a welcoming place where people from different backgrounds can feel at home. How we speak must reflect this.

Hopeful & inspiring

There are great challenges in the world and we will inspire and develop solutions that will contribute to meaningful change. As a place that's tackling today's tough problems, Carleton can be a beacon of meaningful change. How we communicate should inspire others to join us in making an impact.

Clear & accessible

Carleton is committed to becoming the most accessible university in Canada — that includes our communications. To have our messages be as accessible as possible to all audiences, we must use language that is clear, concise and easily understood wherever possible.

Visual identity

Our visual identity is composed of all the most visible parts of the Carleton brand. Our logo, typography, colours, photography and graphic elements all work together to create the visual expression of our brand.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Logo

Our logo is often the first touchpoint people have with our brand and it appears on most of our communications. It is a primary visual representation of the university — a visual cue that embodies the story of who we are, where we came from, what we do and why we do it.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Logo → University

Carleton's logo has evolved during the university's rich history. The new version of the university logo provides a contemporary, streamlined look that encapsulates our brand personality – accessible, authentic, honest, inclusive, active and vibrant – while honouring our past by incorporating traditional symbols, colours and elements appearing in previous versions.

Carleton University

WORDMARK AND NAME

Our logo's text uses the font Roboto Slab. Modern, bold and reflective of the gravitas of a university, the serif face provides a distinct wordmark for Carleton.

MAPLE LEAF

Appearing in a vibrant red, this traditional nod to the Canadian flag ties Carleton to our nation's capital.

SHIELD

This shield shape represents tradition and strength — it has been modernized to provide a bold, sleek look.

WAVES

This pattern symbolizes the pages of a book and the knowledge it contains, alludes to the waterways that border our campus, and suggests the wings of a raven. Its shape signifies vibrant, forward momentum.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Logo → Horizontal format

This is the preferred version of the university logo and is to be used wherever possible. Full colour is preferred as red is such a powerful component of our identity. The single colour versions should only be used when full colour is not an option.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Logo → Vertical format

The vertical stacked version can be used if the horizontal version doesn't fit well or if the layout calls for a symmetrical look. Full colour is preferred as red is such a powerful component of our identity. The single colour versions should only be used when full colour is not an option.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Logo → Clear space and minimum size

The following guidelines apply to all versions of the logo, including faculty, department, school, program, partner and co-branding lock-ups.

CLEAR SPACE

To ensure our logo is visible, it is important to maintain a clear space around the logo. Place the logo on an uncluttered background away from any other graphic element. This clear space is defined by the width of the shield in the logo and extends from the furthest edge in each direction.

MINIMUM SIZE

To ensure it is easy to read and recognize, the logo should not be applied smaller than the widths shown here. In logo lock-ups, these measurements apply to the Carleton wordmark and shield portion of the lock-up.

Print: 1.5" minimum width
Digital: 108 px minimum width

Print: 1" minimum width
Digital: 78 px minimum width

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

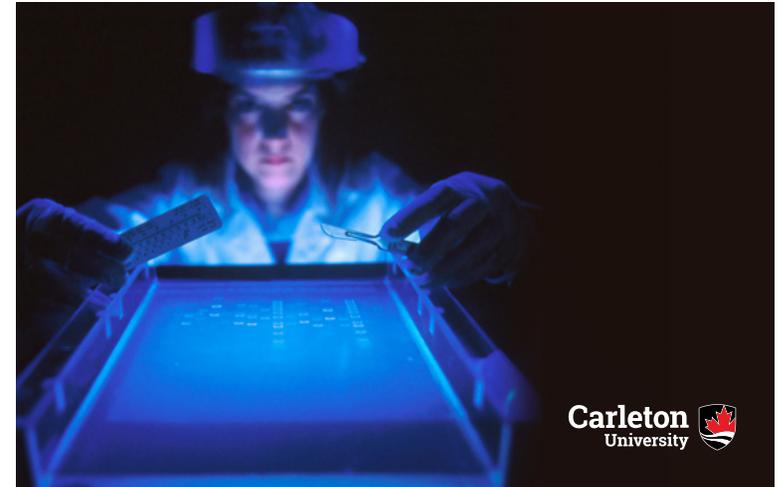

Logo → Placement

Consistent use and placement of our logo helps reinforce the brand and make it immediately recognizable. In most applications, the logos should be placed at the bottom. This applies to all lock-up versions of the logo.

The exception is digital applications that involve scrolling. In this case, the logo should be placed at the top of the layout instead.

Vertical formats

Horizontal formats

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Logo → Improper usage

The integrity of the logo is critically important. The following are examples of what not to do with the Carleton logo in any of its formats.

Do not rearrange logo elements

Do not distort or stretch the logo

Do not rotate the logo

Do not embellish or add effects

Do not alter the logo colours

Do not place over busy backgrounds

BRAND GUIDELINES

Logo → Non-academic

Non-academic logos can be used for non-academic offices or services in some cases, but use of the Carleton University logo on its own is preferred.

Unit designations can be used elsewhere, such as in email signatures (see page 48). When use is permitted, non-academic logos follow the same lockup system used elsewhere. Custom logos are not permitted.

In the case of a name that is 10 characters or less, use the larger font size as shown in One word name example.

- Multiple formats are available
- Use the version needed to provide the right context for your audience
- Use the horizontal lock-up whenever possible
- Follow all logo usage guidelines
- The preferred logo for non-academic communications is the Carleton-only logo and “custom” logos are not to be used

Logo → Co-branding, sponsorships and partnerships

When the Carleton logo appears alongside other logos to indicate co-branding, sponsorship or partnership arrangements, follow these guidelines to ensure all logos are properly represented.

WHEN APPEARING WITH ONE OTHER LOGO:

- Use the university logo in its preferred horizontal version
- Separate the logos by the shield
- Separate the logos by a vertical line the full height of the logo

WHEN APPEARING WITH MULTIPLE OTHER LOGOS:

- Use the university logo in its preferred horizontal version
- Place the university logo bottom right or left in accordance with placement guidelines
- Place the other logos in an equally spaced row along the bottom of the layout
- Add text to provide the partnership or sponsorship context above the logos

Logo → Swag

Informal versions of our logo can be created for use exclusively on promotional merchandise such as apparel, bags, mugs and pens. Use of official logos is preferable and should be used when suitable. These informal logos should not be used on any other communication materials — and all guidelines for proper usage should be followed.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Logo → Events

Events aimed at internal audiences should use the Carleton logo and visual identity. However, event logos may be created to promote significant events and conferences targeted toward external audiences such as community and professional groups. Organizers of external-facing events can work with Creative Services to determine if an independent event brand is suitable, and then request a new logo.

The following guidelines apply to external event logos:

- Incorporate the Carleton University wordmark, unless the event logo is used in conjunction with the Carleton logo
- Use approved brand fonts for all typography
- Use approved brand colours as appropriate

Logo → New logos

Permission is required to design and use a new logo. To request a new logo, get approval from the head of the appropriate department and then submit a requisition to Creative Services.

Before submitting a logo request, please read the guide section on logos to see if a “custom” logo is permitted.

Coat of arms → Overview

The Carleton University coat of arms symbolizes sound learning, good citizenship, and the highest hopes of humanity.

HERALDIC DESCRIPTION

Sable a maple leaf Gules irradiated and charged with an open book Argent; And for a Crest: On a wreath Argent Sable and Gules a Phoenix Gules quilled and beaked Or issuing from flames proper; And for a Motto: Ours the Task Eternal; And for Supporters: on a grassy mount on either side a raven Sable beaked and membered or armed Gules.

PHOENIX

The phoenix symbolizes the renewing of learning from older foundations, in recognition of Henry Marshall Tory's role in the founding of the university when he was 78 years old.

CREST

The open book on the maple leaf signifies that Carleton University is in the nation's capital and that learning is open to all.

RAVENS

A reference to Carleton's teams, ravens are known for their intelligence, teamwork, communication and determination.

MOTTO

"Ours the Task Eternal" is taken from a Walt Whitman poem entitled "Pioneers" and ties in the eternal quality of the phoenix and knowledge.

CLEAR SPACE

Place the logo on an uncluttered background away from any other graphic element. Maintain a clear space around the coat of arms defined by the width of the crest and extending from the furthest edge in each direction.

MINIMUM SIZE

The coat of arms should not be applied smaller than the widths shown here.

Print: 1" minimum width
Digital: 96 px minimum width

Typography

Typography is a visual expression of our brand voice. Our brand includes two brand fonts and two alternate fonts that allow us to create a distinct look while providing flexibility in documents and designs.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Typography → Brand fonts

The brand fonts should be used for marketing collateral and branded communications where possible and practical to do so, as they are the purest visual expression of the Carleton brand voice, and help ensure communications coming from us are recognized as ours.

Helvetica Now is available in a number of weights and any may be used.

HELVETICA NOW

abcdefghijklmnopqrstvwxyz
ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ
1234567890 !@#$%^&*()

Helvetica Now is our primary brand font. It's a modernized version of a very classic sans serif font that has endured time and has evolved to perform better in the digital world. Bold and confident, it can be used for headlines, titles and lead-in copy — anywhere you want to draw attention. It is also versatile and can be used for body copy.

PUBLICICO

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ
1234567890 !@#$%^&*()

Publico Medium is the only weight to be used.

Publico is our secondary brand font. It is a friendly and eye-catching serif font that provides a humanizing look and feel. While primarily used for body copy and captions, it can bring an approachability to headlines — balancing the bold, modern look of Helvetica Now.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Typography → Alternate fonts

When our brand fonts are not available, you can choose these alternative fonts. They are widely available and come in a variety of weights and styles.

Arial is available in a number of weights and any may be used.

ARIAL

abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz
ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ
1234567890 !@#$%^&*()

Arial is our primary alternate font. It can be used in place of Helvetica Now for headlines, titles and lead-in copy. It can also be used for body copy.

GEORGIA

abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz
ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ
1234567890 !@#$%^&*()

Georgia is available in regular and bold weights. Either may be used.

Georgia is our secondary default font. It can be used in place of Publico primarily for body copy and captions, but also to add variety in headlines.

Colours

Colour is an important part of our brand. It reflects our brand personality, helps make us instantly recognizable and is a great way to add depth, personality and vibrancy to our communications materials.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Colours → Primary palette

Our primary colour palette reinforces traditional Carleton colours — with the red evolving to appear more vibrant than ever. It aligns with Ottawa's colours and Canada's national colours, as well as to our raven mascot. The primary palette is vibrant and strong, bold and optimistic.

Colours → Accessibility

Our colour palettes have been chosen with accessibility in mind. The following combinations of text and background colour achieve AA accessibility standards in all text sizes and weights.

Photography

Photography is an important part of the Carleton brand because it can tell a story and reflect who we are in an authentic way. A well-chosen image can engage audiences, create context, add colour and texture, capture nuance and help articulate the essence of the Carleton experience.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Photography → Guiding principles

Engaging original photography should be used where possible. To accurately tell our story and reflect the Carleton brand, there are four guiding principles to consider.

SELECTED IMAGES SHOULD BE:

Bold

Carleton is an exciting place doing exciting things. Photography should be confident and distinctive, not quiet and generic.

Active

There's a lot going on in every part of the university. Our subjects should be captured either taking action or taking a brief break from what they're doing to interact with our audience.

Authentic

Photography must reflect the actual story of Carleton. We should capture real students, faculty, and staff in environments that reflect Carleton. We have a unique story to tell, so must emphasize this through the imagery we use.

Inclusive

The Carleton community is diverse in every way. Photography should proportionately represent diversity in all forms.

BRAND GUIDELINES

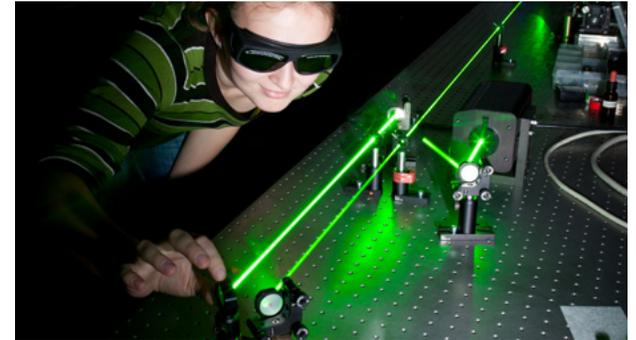

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Photography → People

Carleton is a close-knit community. People are the centre of our stories and our successes, so featuring up-close and personal photography is important. Images of people can demonstrate a sense of belonging while creating an intimate connection with our audiences.

SELECTED IMAGES SHOULD:

- Show positive, determined, confident-looking people — representative of Carleton's diversity
- Be candid and not posed — showing people caught in an authentic moment
- Be in-situ — showing people caught in the action, taking on challenges
- Feature tight composition so the entire frame feels full and colourful
- Vary between eye-contact with audience and focused on their task
- Tell an interesting story — using angles and foreground items to create visual interest

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Photography → Place

Our campus, Ottawa and the surrounding geography, and the locations our studies and work take us are an important part of the Carleton story. Place images anchor our brand, showcase our campus and architecture, speak to strength and permanence, and can create strong and lasting impression.

SELECTED IMAGES SHOULD:

- Be interesting — use architectural features, angles and lighting to gain attention and make a connection
- Bring the campus to life — show variety in time of day, seasons, lighting and weather conditions
- Include people — where possible, show students, staff, faculty and alumni engaging with the space

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Photography → Impact

Having an impact is central to the Carleton story — it woven throughout all elements of the brand. It is part of our positioning, our promise and our vision. Impact images make for very compelling storytelling that places what we do in context and allows our audiences to see and imagine themselves making a real difference. They can be used to communicate more abstract or complex concepts that would be difficult to capture in a single image of people and places.

SELECTED IMAGES SHOULD:

- Be easy to understand — show the difference Carleton and its people are making in the world in a tangible or highly visible way if possible
- Be editorial and evocative — images should provide important context and support the story being told
- Be original photography or carefully chosen stock images — try to be unique in either case

Graphic elements

The Carleton brand incorporates a variety of graphic elements to add different dimensions to our branded communications. They can be used for visual interest, to structure or unify designs, to break up or highlight content and to help communicate abstract or complex ideas and information.

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Graphic elements → Design system

The Carleton design system brings all elements of our visual identity together. It was created with enough flexibility to allow for a wide variety of layouts while providing enough unity to create brand recognition. The following features are used to help provide consistency and strengthen the brand.

The wave

The wave is an elaboration of the pattern from our logo. It is our primary graphic element. It gets attention and creates a sense of flow and momentum as Carleton charts a path toward an exciting future. The shape is not fixed — portions can be used and variations can be created as long as they are clearly recognizable as waves and appear in Carleton red. The wave is versatile. It can be used to add visual interest, provide a focal point, highlight content or provide structure to designs.

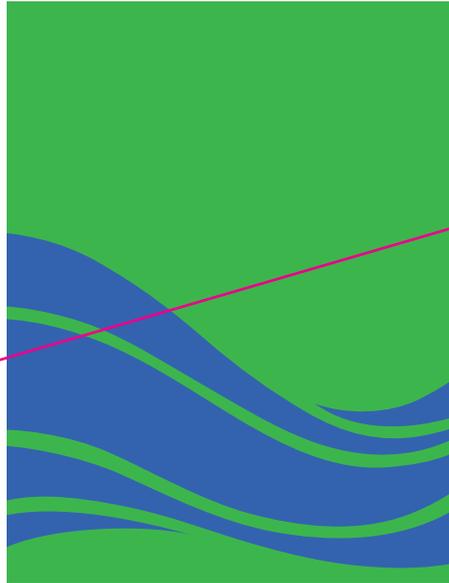

BRAND GUIDELINES

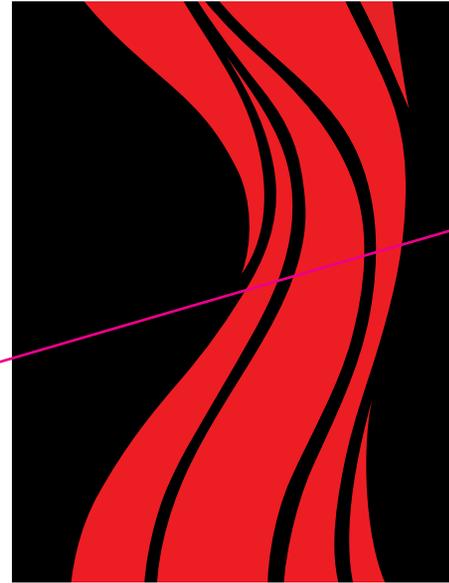

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

The Wave → Improper usage

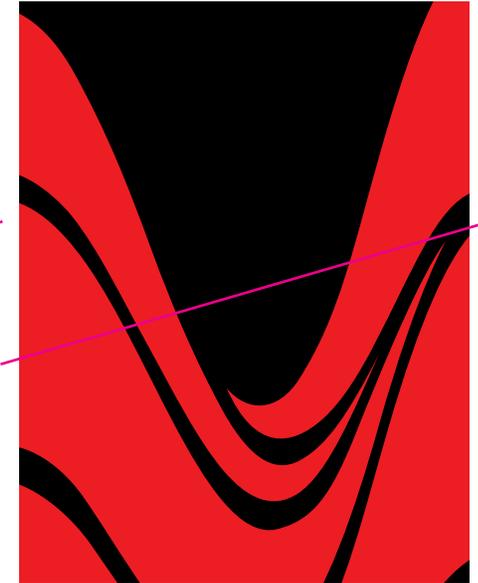

The integrity of the wave is critically important. The following are examples of what not to do with the wave in any of its formats.

Do not alter the wave colours

Do not rotate the wave

Do not distort or stretch the wave

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Graphic elements

→ White space

White space is simply the space between — and sometimes within — other design elements. It is an important consideration in any layout and should be applied generously where possible within the Carleton design system. White space can be used to balance designs, organize and enhance visibility and readability of content, provide a clear space for logos and other elements, or convey a certain mood. White space is not necessarily white. It can be any colour or texture so long as it provides room for a design to breathe.

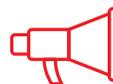

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

Graphic elements → Icons

Icons are a good way to simplify and categorize information. In order to maintain a consistent branded look, adhere to the following guiding principles when selecting or creating icons.

- Use flat design — icons should appear flat with no sense of depth or forced perspective
- Keep it simple — icons should be simplified down to the minimum amount of detail
- Create a unified set — icons should appear as outlines using the same line thickness everywhere

BRAND GUIDELINES

Introduction / Brand / Visual identity / Typography / Colours / Photography / Graphic elements / Sprott brand / Ravens brand

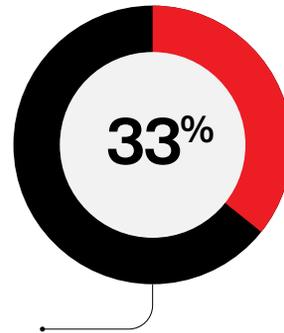

Graphic elements

→ Infographics

Infographics are a good way to gain attention and showcase data. In order to maintain a consistent branded look, adhere to the following guiding principles when creating infographics.

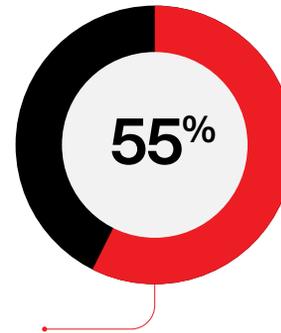

- Make it clear and easy to understand — infographics can combine numbers, icons and recognizable symbols to make the data simple to grasp
- Use colour generously — use primary or secondary colour palettes to bring life to the infographic and help categorize data
- Keep it easily digestible — infographics are most effective when content is broken up into smaller chunks, categorized and visually separated

Design examples → Email

Email is an important communication channel and a key way for us to stay in touch with each other and our audiences. Our signatures act as a digital form of a business card and play a highly visible role in terms of our reputation. As with all other elements, consistency is essential to a strong brand.

Use all email signature templates as provided. Please do not:

- Change the font in any manner (e.g. bolding, italics, etc.)
- Alter the colour
- Adjust the information order
- Add a background image or colour
- Use a logo that is different than the one in the template (unit designations are to be noted below title)

The image shows a screenshot of an email client's 'New message' window. The window has a dark header with the title 'New message' and standard window controls (minimize, maximize, close). Below the header, there are input fields for 'To' and 'Subject'. A red horizontal line is positioned above the signature block. The signature block contains the following text: 'Name (pronoun), MA', 'Title', 'Department', 'Carleton University', '1125 Colonel By Dr, Ottawa, ON K1S 5B6', 'T 555.555.5555 x555', 'M 555.555.5555 x555', and the URL 'carleton.ca'. Below the text is the Carleton University logo, which consists of the word 'Carleton' in a bold, sans-serif font above the word 'University' in a smaller font, with a red maple leaf icon to the right. At the bottom of the window, there is a toolbar with a blue 'Send' button, a font size selector showing 'A', and icons for attachments, links, emojis, and images. A vertical ellipsis menu icon and a trash can icon are also visible on the right side of the toolbar.

Ravens → Improper usage

To ensure integrity of the logo:

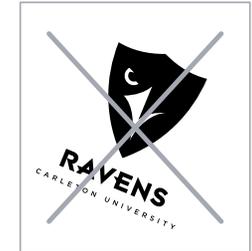

Don't flip the raven's face

Don't distort the logo

Don't use a different font in place of the logotypes

Don't use the logo at an odd angle

Don't alter the arrangement of elements in lockups

Beak and eye are always white

Don't reverse the logo

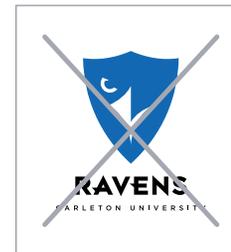

Don't outline the shield

A busy photo background should not compete with the legibility of the logo

Don't crop a photo within the logo

Shield is always black (except when black is unavailable)

Non-shield logo is reversed only from black (except when black is not available)
