

Climate Policies, International Regimes, & Global Trade

A Transatlantic Perspective

Support provided by:

European Commission

Canada-Europe Transatlantic Dialogue Strategic Knowledge
Cluster (SSHRC)

Italian Chamber of Commerce in Canada-West

Round Table Discussion presents the latest in the IES Jean Monnet
Outreach Series.

10-11
June
2011

Friday 10 June 2011

18:00 Opening Remarks:

Dr. Kurt Hübner IES Director

18:15 Keynote Presentation:

Matthew Hoffmann University of Toronto
Into the Void? Experimenting with Climate Governance

19:15 Round Table Discussion:

Arne Jungjohann Heinrich Böll Foundation
James Mack BC Provincial Climate Secretariat
Stefan Pauer European Commission DG Climate Action
Gray Taylor Bennett Jones LLP

Reception to follow.

Saturday 11 June 2011

8:30-9:45 Session 1 Taking Stock: Climate Policy Approaches in the EU, US, and Canada

North American Climate Change Governance: Challenges of Multilevel Policy Making

Henrik Selin Boston University

Will Different Approaches to Climate Change Policy in Canada, US and EU Create Trade Issues?

Gray Taylor Chair, Climate Change & Emissions Trading Group and Corporate Law Partner, Bennett Jones LLP

Free Allocation and the Risk of Carbon Leakage in the EU ETS

Stefan Pauer European Commission DG Climate Action

Coffee Break

10:00-12:30 Session 2 International Regimes and Climate Policy

Border Adjustment for European Emissions Trading: Competitiveness and Carbon Leakage

Onno Kuik VU University Amsterdam

Global Climate Regime-What we can learn from Global Trade Negotiations

Thomas Cottier World Trade Institute, University of Bern

Application of the EU Emissions Trading Scheme to Foreign Airlines

Armand de Mestral McGill University

13:30-18:00 Session 3 International Trade, Border Adjustments and Carbon Policies

Implementing a border adjustment in complement to the European Union emission trading system: the rationale, the design and the consequences

Stéphanie Monjon Centre International de Recherche sur l'Environnement et le Développement, Nogent sur Marne, France

The Carbon Content of International Trade

Karl Steininger University of Graz

A Transatlantic Carbon Market-Real Prospect or Pipe Dream?

Wolfgang Sterk Climate Institute Wuppertal

Coffee Break

Climate change mitigation and competitiveness issues: How to move from scattered price instruments to a global carbon market?

Alain De Serres OECD Paris

Taming the Tiger: Defining Best Practice in Border Carbon Adjustment

Aaron Cosby International Institute for Sustainable Development