

CANADA-EUROPE TRANSATLANTIC DIALOGUE:
SEEKING TRANSNATIONAL SOLUTIONS TO 21ST CENTURY PROBLEMS
www.canada-europe-dialogue.ca

EXTERNAL COLLABORATORS (USA)

Michelle Egan (American University)

Michelle Egan (American University) is a political scientist currently engaged in research on comparative public policy; economic transitions in Central and Eastern Europe; European integration; transatlantic economic relations; comparative law and legal reforms; and a comparative historical study of market formation in US and Europe. She is involved in a Jean Monnet Transatlantic Research Group on Governance and Policy-Making in the European Union led by Amy Verdun and participates in that thematic group in the Cluster.

Sean Kay (Ohio Wesleyan University)

Sean Kay is Chair of International Studies and Professor at Ohio Wesleyan University and Mershon Associate at the Mershon Center for International Security Studies at the Ohio State University. He is also a Fellow at the Eisenhower Institute in Washington, D.C.