COURSE DESCRIPTION / INSTRUCTOR'S STATEMENT

This course will provide an opportunity for students to deepen their understanding of research through hands-on skills and practices relevant to Indigenous and Canadian Studies.

From learning general and foundational information on the language of research, participants will have an opportunity to deeply engage with the fundamentals of researching in the humanities and social sciences. A core component of this course will be to research “research” through cultural, legal, and economic frameworks as well as activities planned onsite at MacOdrum Library.
