

Course	INDG 1011 Introduction to Indigenous-Settler Encounters ONLINE SYNCHRONOUS
Instructor	Samantha Stevens
Term	Late Summer 2023 --- 4-July – 16 August
Email Address
Office Location	N/A
Office Hours	TBA

COURSE DESCRIPTION / INSTRUCTOR'S STATEMENT

In this course, students will be introduced to the historical and contemporary political and social encounters surrounding the relationships between Indigenous peoples and settlers in so-called Canada. We will explore these relationships beginning around first contact through to current events and struggles. Through the lens of treaty relationships, rights, responsibilities, and reconciliation, students will gain a foundational understanding of the importance of understanding diverse worldviews, shifting power dynamics, and ongoing tensions.

This course aims to provide a critical framework for understanding and reflecting on Canada's complex colonial history and contemporary Indigenous issues using discussion, engagement, and thoughtful assignments.

EVALUATION

TBA