The Academic Internship Council (AIC), together with the Council on International Educational Exchange (CIEE), creates opportunities that help bring people together. They foster mutual growth, understanding and respect between the partner organizations and the students completing their internships. The primary focus is to encourage global citizens contributing to areas including public policy, arts, business administration and marketing.

ABOUT

Flexible program length with options to customize the exact duration of the internship. The average placement is approximately 8 weeks.

LENGTH

INCLUSIONS

- Accommodations
- Airport pick-up & drop-off
- In-country workshops and activities available, including professional development opportunities (online and in-person). Workshop topics include: cultural understanding, local and cultural topics, etc.
- Post-internship follow-up and LinkedIn recommendations to leverage experiences abroad
- 24-hour support and guidance from in-country staff

FEES

Program fees vary depending on the location. Fees start at $4930 USD. Carleton University tuition fees are in addition to the program fees.

Carleton offers bursaries of $500 - $2,500 to offset travel costs. Students enrolled in the International Internship Program will be provided all bursary application details.

For more information: https://www.ciee.org/partner-ciee/partner-institutions/academic-internship-council/our-cities

For more information on the Internship Program, visit us:

404 Tory Building
International.internships@carleton.ca
Above, is Sahana Kapur in Mumbai, India, a Global and International Studies student, exploring rural parts of India.