Emzingo works with forward-looking leaders, values-driven organizations, business corporations, and institutions to design tailored experiences for participants. The program is designed to increase participants’ ability to innovate, work with multiple stakeholders, navigate change and uncertainty, and connect business performance with social and environmental responsibility.

ABOUT

The program is offered for a minimum of 8 weeks.

LENGTH

INCLUSIONS

• Visa: processing, fees, and support
• Accommodations
• In-country transportation provided
• Cultural immersion activities
• Pre-departure sessions and in-country orientations
• Leadership workshops and activities in-country throughout the duration of the internship
• 24-hour support and guidance by the Country Manager

FEES

Program fees are $3950 USD for both Peru and South Africa. Carleton University tuition fees are in addition to the program fees.

Carleton offers bursaries of $500 - $2,500 to offset travel costs. Students enrolled in the International Internship Program will be provided all bursary application details.

For more information: http://emzingo-u.com/global-impact-fellowship/

For more information on the Internship Program, visit us:
404 Tory Building
International.internships@carleton.ca
PLACEMENT DETAILS

All Emzingo students are placed in teams of 2-3 interns to assist an NGO or Social Enterprise in a strategic challenge. The internships consist of completing high-level strategy, research, or implementation projects to help organizations achieve their objectives.

Sample projects include:

- Creating a recruitment program for a national NGO
- Implementation and support for Educational NGO Tutoring Program

Above, is Joseph Deane, a Bachelor of Global and International Studies student, on an excursion in the Huacachina Desert in Peru.

For more information on the Internship Program, visit us:
404 Tory Building
International.internships@carleton.ca