The Intern Group is an award-winning social enterprise that takes top applicants, and significantly improves their skills and employability via international internship opportunities. They work with leading companies, NGO's and government organizations in a wide range of locations. Past interns have worked at organizations including FIFA and Sony Music.

ABOUT

Flexible program length with a minimum 6 weeks and a maximum of 24 weeks. Most internship opportunities are available for an average of 8 to 10 weeks. Due to the variation in program length, there are rolling start dates in the summer.

INCLUSIONS

- Visa assistance
- Accommodations
- Airport pick-up and drop-off
- Professional development workshops and intercultural competency training
- 24-hour support and guidance from in-country staff

FEES

Program fees vary depending on the location and the length of the placement. Carleton University tuition fees are in addition to the program fees.

Carleton offers bursaries of $500 - $2,500 to offset travel costs. Students enrolled in the International Internship Program will be provided all bursary application details.
