The Uniterra program is jointly operated by the World University Service of Canada (WUSC), and CECI. WUSC is a Canadian non-profit organization dedicated to providing education, employment, and empowerment opportunities to youth around the world. CECI is a Canadian international cooperation organization that has been supporting communities in the fight against poverty, and exclusion through sustainable development projects. The Uniterra program allows participants to contribute to economic growth and poverty reduction in parts of Asia, Africa and the Americas.

ABOUT

The program duration is between 3-4 months, with the possibility of extending beyond 4 months.

LENGTH

The program duration is between 3-4 months, with the possibility of extending beyond 4 months.

INCLUSIONS

- Visa processing support
- Accommodations
- Medical insurance
- Vaccinations required for travel to region
- Monthly living allowance, intended for living expenses
- In-country arrival support, with airport pick-up
- Full internship program coordination and ongoing support
- Pre-departure orientation and programming (prior to departure, and in-country training)

FEES

For Canadian citizens, and permanent residents, enrolled through Carleton University, the program cost is $4500. Carleton University tuition fees are in addition to the program fees.

Carleton offers bursaries of $500 - $2,500 to offset travel costs. Students enrolled in the International Internship Program will be provided all bursary application details.

For more information: http://uniterra.ca/en

For more information on the Internship Program, visit us:
404 Tory Building
International.internships@carleton.ca
For more information on the Internship Program, visit us:
404 Tory Building
International.internships@carleton.ca