The Centre for European Studies at Carleton University, invites you to a

BOOK LAUNCH

Transatlantic Democracy Promotion: Electoral Assistance in the Palestinian Territories

Author: Rouba Al-Fattal Eeckelaert
Visiting Scholar at CES
Professor at University of Ottawa

Commentator: Costanza Musu
Professor at University of Ottawa

Monday, February 3rd
11:30 am to 1:30 pm
Alumni Boardroom, 6th floor
Robertson Hall, Carleton University

In this systematic, comparative analysis of European, American and Canadian efforts to assist elections and transform governance in conflict zones Rouba Al-Fattal greatly advances the empirical knowledge of electoral assistance and provides the first steps needed to reform electoral assistance policy to cope with the challenges of the twenty-first century.

Rouba Al-Fattal Eeckelaert holds an MSc in European Politics from Montreal University and a PhD in Transatlantic Democracy Promotion from the Institute for European and International Policy, Leuven University, Belgium. She is co-founder of the Euro-Arab Forum. Rouba published two books, several articles and also lectured on the EU Foreign Policy.

*Author’s most recent publication, a policy paper titled “Lessons learned from Transatlantic electoral assistance in the Palestinian Territories,” will soon be available on the CES website.

The event is supported, in part, by a grant from the European Union and in collaboration with the University of Ottawa.
For more information contact ces@carleton.ca or 613 520-2600 ext. 1087