

Event: EU Issues Conference for High School Students
Date: Tuesday, April 16, 2024
Location: Richcraft Hall, rooms 2220-2224-2228, 3220-3224-3228

The Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence at the Centre for European Studies is hosting a one-day conference for high school students at Carleton University. The conference will focus on important topics and issues relating to the European Union (EU).

Students will have the opportunity to receive a keynote address first in the morning and attend a choice of three interactive workshops throughout the day presented by graduate students at Carleton University. The topics of the workshops will include enlargement of the European Union, European Union integration, memory laws, the environment and microplastics, and implications of Russia's war in Ukraine on the European Union.

Students studying history, politics, world issues, economics, law, and social sciences are encouraged to join the conference.
