SEMINAR IN “RELIGION AND PUBLIC LIFE”
RELI 5802 – (Fall 2012)
Professor Johannes C. Wolfart
Office: 2A62 Paterson Hall; Telephone: x2932

COURSE OBJECTIVES
The seminar has as its mandate to focus on “key thinkers and case studies [in order] to approach “religion and public life” from Religious Studies perspectives.” (http://calendar.carleton.ca/grad/courses/RELI/).

Currently, it is a commonplace observation that religion has made a remarkable recovery as a feature of public life in recent years (and especially since September 11, 2001). Whether this is true or not is highly debatable, in particular because the observation is premised on the dubious assumption that religion was once in terminal decline, not only as a feature of public life, but also as a private undertaking.

What is abundantly clear, however, is that rubrics linking something called “religion” with something else variously identified as “public life”, “the public sphere”, etc., have lately proliferated both in para-academic and bona fide academic settings. While the cultural conditions and political circumstances of the adoption of such rubrics may be fairly obvious, their actual content meaning and intellectual value remain – despite their presentation as transparently self-explanatory – rather obscure. It is the ultimate aim of the seminar to cast some light on the rubric itself, to determine as clearly as possible what it means or could mean, and to establish such meaning as effectively as possible in relation to particular academic settings (Religious Studies, Carleton University…) and social political contexts (Ottawa, Ontario, Canada…).

Finally, the seminar presupposes your acceptance of the principles of the modern research university, and especially: 1) that a seminar differs fundamentally from a lecture course; 2) that the academic study of religion is not the same thing as confessional apologetic or pastoral theology. Your understanding and appreciation of such principles will hopefully develop further during over the course of the seminar.

EVALUATION
Essay Proposal – 20% (1500-2000 words; due 17 October); detailed brief to be distributed
Essay – 50% (8,000-12,000 words; due 28 November)
Seminar participation/contribution – 30% (up to 3% per class)

POLICY ON ATTENDANCE
Not only is it common practice to evaluate participation in discussion and contribution to a seminar, it is also customary that habitual non-attendance be considered unacceptable performance. Such non-attendance entails a failure to contribute that is simply un-collegial. Moreover, since it is impossible to make up a missed seminar, a member who does not attend regularly cannot really be said to have taken the course. Therefore, any member who is absent from more than 3 meetings of the seminar will not receive course credit. In other words, all members of the seminar must be present for three quarters of all meetings of the seminar! Period.
READINGS
All required readings are available to seminar members via the MacOdrum Library (Reserves), or electronically. Please note that readings are a prerequisite for seminar participation. Your ability to contribute effectively will depend on you keeping up with the reading. Furthermore, all members of the seminar are encouraged to “read around” the seminar topics as much as possible, and to share their scholarship with the seminar. The preparation of an essay proposal and term essay will also undoubtedly involve such further reading.

OFFICE HOURS
Office hours will be held Mondays 10-11 or by appointment

E-MAIL COMMUNICATION
Carleton communications policy states that faculty must conduct email communications with students only through their Carleton email accounts. Please be advised, further, that students can normally expect up to a 24 hour turn-around time on e-mail communication, especially during high volume times (i.e. before examinations, at essay time, etc.).

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

PETITIONS TO DEFER
If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment. If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery. If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept. Deferrals of assignments must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor. Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
