

Carleton
UNIVERSITY

College of the Humanities and Cosponsor
Mahatma Gandhi Peace Council of Ottawa
cordially invite you to the M.K. Gandhi Lecture

The Impact of Jain Religious Tradition on Gandhi

The presentation focuses on the influence of Jain philosophy and principles on the thoughts and actions of Gandhi. In order to provide a proper context a description is provided of the Jain principles and how Gandhi came to be influenced by them. Brief comments are offered on the relevance of the shared thoughts of Gandhi and the Jain tradition to the World today.

Sunday October 1st, 2023
Richcraft Hall, Carleton University

Speaker: Dr. Jagmohan Humar. CM
Distinguished Research Professor
Carleton University

Program

2:00 pm Garlanding

Statue at Richcraft Hall

2:45 pm Lecture

Room 2200 Richcraft Hall

Reception

Richcraft Atrium

The M.K. Gandhi Lecture has been endowed by Mahatma Gandhi Peace Council through contributions from Dr. Kanta Marwah, Dr. Nishith Goel, Dr. Jagmohan Humar, Dr. Pradeep Merchant, the Late Mr. Kailash Mital, Dr. Vasant Ruparelia, and Mr. Jack Uppal

Please RSVP: rajain5@yahoo.ca