Lectures: Tu/Th 2:35pm-5:25pm, Tory 238

Our focus in this course will be to view the variety of texts contained in the Hebrew Bible of ancient Israel within the historical, cultural, and religious contexts within which these texts developed. The history of the ancient Near East provides an important backdrop for the movement from polytheism to monotheism, from Israelite religion to Judaism, as well as the themes of covenant and theodicy and the ancients’ understanding of the nature of the divine and its relationship with humanity. Although the Hebrew Bible continues to be a sacred text for the monotheistic traditions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, our goal will be to understand it from the perspective of its original authors and audiences, rather than adopting the lenses of the later history of interpretation.

Our objectives are: (a) to develop an academic approach to the study of religious texts, using the tools of literary study, anthropology, history, and archaeology; (b) to understand the history, culture, and worldview of ancient Israel as separate from and prior to the historical development of Judaism and Christianity; (c) to understand the variety of genres and source texts contained within the Hebrew Bible and appreciate the ways in which they operate both independently of and in combination with each other; and (d) to understand and appreciate the interaction between text and context, culture and history, in determining religious meaning.

Required Texts:

1. You will need a Bible. I have ordered the Jewish Publication Society’s Tanakh (in English) for this class, but other modern Bible translations are acceptable. Modern translations include anything produced after the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls such as the Revised Standard and New Revised Standard Versions (RSV and NRSV), New English, Jerusalem, New International Version. Check the title page of any Bible you own to check the translation. Though poetic, the King James Version is not an accurate translation and won’t work for this class.

2. I will be uploading several articles to CULearn. These are required reading, as noted in the schedule below.

3. Richard E. Friedman’s bestselling Who Wrote the Bible? Friedman offers an engaging look at how biblical scholarship works, and a very accessible introduction to how and when the Hebrew Bible was put together. This is also required reading, as noted on the schedule below (WWTB).

Evaluation:

1. Quizzes, 5 @ 6% each, total worth 30%.

2. Final examination, date TBA (during finals week June 19-25), worth 30%.

3. Exegetical paper assignment, details TBA, due beginning of class June 16, worth 30%.

4. Attendance & Participation, worth 10%.

REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HUMANITIES COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED
Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:
- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper quotation marks;
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs."

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term.
http://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/academic/

For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: contact the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist.

Religious obligation: contact the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision.

If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made.

Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

PETITIONS TO DEFER
If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a FINAL assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply a deferral of examination/assignment.

If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral due to illness you will be required to see a physician in order to confirm illness and obtain a medical certificate dated no later than one working day after the examination or assignment deadline. This supporting documentation must specify the date of onset of the illness, the degree of incapacitation, and the expected date of recovery.

If you are applying for a deferral for reasons other than personal illness, please contact the Registrar’s Office directly for information on other forms of documentation that we accept.

Deferrals of assignments must be supported by confirmation of the assignment due date, for example a copy of the course outline specifying the due date and any documented extensions from the course instructor.

Deferral applications for examination or assignments must be submitted within 5 working days of the original final exam.
