

Carleton University
Strengthening Carleton's Indo-Pacific Partnerships (SCIPP)
Application Form for Student Research Fellowship

This application is for a research fellowship under the Carleton International project Strengthening Carleton's Indo-Pacific Partnerships (SCIPP), funded by the Government of Canada. Students are invited to apply to visit an institution in an eligible country to complete a research project that aligns with the Strategic Objectives of Canada's Indo-Pacific Strategy. The amount of the award is $10,000 CAD to support travel, insurance, and living expenses during the visit.

Note that applicants must demonstrate support of their Carleton supervisors and to have secured a host supervisor at the host institution before applying. A letter of invitation from the host (supervisor, department, or international office) confirming invitation to visit will be required as a supporting document.

Only Canadian Citizens, Permanent Residents, and graduate students enrolled in a program at Carleton are eligible to apply. Successful candidates will be selected based on fit of student's background and interests with the host institution, alignment of the research activities with the Strategic Objectives of Canada's Indo-Pacific Strategy, strength of the research plan, equitable country distribution and GBA+ considerations.

Please complete the information below and submit this form, along with supporting documents (CV, letter of support, and letter of invitation), to mobility.programs@carleton.ca.
