

Understanding State Fragility: Perspectives on Policy Relevant Research—What's Next?

Tuesday, November 25, 2008
8:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Senate Room, Robertson Hall
Carleton University

A one-day conference sponsored by the Faculty of Public Affairs and the Norman Paterson School of International Affairs

Keynote Speaker

Margaret Biggs, President, Canadian International Development Agency

Assessing State Fragility: Policy and Evidence

David Carment

Norman Paterson School of International Affairs

Yiagadeesen Samy

Norman Paterson School of International Affairs

Perspectives from Civil Society

Tag Elkhazin

Sub Sahara Centre

Odette McCarthy

Centre d'étude et de coopération internationale (CECI)

Nipa Banerjee

University of Ottawa

Policy Perspectives

Charles C. Morrisey

Department of National Defence

Shawn Barber

Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade

Martin Benjamin

Canadian International Development Agency

FACULTY OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

To attend, RSVP to:
Christine Barkley
christine_barkley@carleton.ca
(613) 520-3741

For more information about Failed and Fragile States see www.carleton.ca/cifp

Canada's Capital University