

Hear my voice:
Including community voices at post-secondary institutions
- a prof's perspective

Peter Andrée, Associate Professor and Associate Chair, Department of Political Science,
Carleton University, Ottawa

Key points:

- Working to include community voices in post-secondary education can benefit community partners, impact policy AND benefit your career
- Change is slow...
- The journey is worth it!

My Journey: 1990-2006

- Kawartha World Issues Centre, Peterborough Ontario
- MA, Canadian Studies, Trent University
- Trent Centre for Community Based Education (now TCRC)
- Community-Based Research (CBR) and Community Service Learning (CSL) courses (Trent and Carleton)

2007-2016

- Teaching Achievement Award
- Initiative for Community-University Engagement
- Carleton Committee on Community Engaged Pedagogy
 - Workshops, reports, annual events, advocacy within university
- Community First: Impacts of Community Engagement

Committee on Community-Engaged Pedagogy

2016-2018

- Carleton's Experiential Learning Steering Committee
- Community Campus Engage Canada (2017)
- Carleton's Strategic Transformation Group on Community Engagement

2019 ->

- GINS 3200: Carleton in Belize
- ... A Carleton Community Engagement Strategy?
- ??

Key points:

- Working to include community voices in post-secondary education can benefit community partners, impact policy AND benefit your career
- Change is slow...
- The journey is worth it!

Participants at the CFCE Symposium, Carleton University. Photos courtesy of CFCE.

Thank you!

Peter.Andree@Carleton.ca

