CRCJ 4001 [0.5 credit]: Special Topics in Criminology
Examination of a special topic in criminology. Topics to be announced in advance of registration each year.

Required Academic Qualifications and Skills: Candidates should hold a Ph.D. in a related field. Topic to be approved by the Director of the Institute.

Teaching Competence: Candidates are required to have experience teaching at the university level in a related area. Candidates who provide evidence of success in teaching upper-year level seminar courses will be strongly preferred.

NOTE: Current estimations suggest capacity for the Department to offer three distinct CRCJ 4001 0.5 credit courses, each on different special topics, thereby providing fourth year students with various options to satisfy the requisite 1.0 credit elective at the 4000-level. Students registered in distinct CRCJ 4001 0.5 credit courses on different special topics will receive the full credit count toward their degree.

CRCJ 4002 [0.5 credit]: Special Topics in Criminology
Examination of a special topic in criminology. Topics to be announced in advance of registration each year.

Required Academic Qualifications and Skills: Candidates should hold a Ph.D. in a related field. Topic to be approved by the Director of the Institute.
