

Contract Instructor Opportunities Fall 2023 - Winter 2024

Institute of Criminology & Criminal Justice

Carleton University

Pursuant to Article 16 of the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applications are invited from members of the CUPE 4600-2 bargaining unit and other interested persons to teach the following Criminology courses during the 2023/2024 Fall/Winter terms.

Application Procedures and Deadlines:

All applicants must apply to the Institute Director in writing and in relation to each course for which they wish to be considered:

Dr. Nicolas Carrier
Director, Institute of Criminology & Criminal Justice
Carleton University
1125 Colonel by Drive, 1727 Dunton Tower
Ottawa, ON. K1S 5B6

Please send applications electronically by April 21st, 2023 to robin.dunbar@carleton.ca

As per Article 15.3 of the current CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applicants are required to submit an up to date CV, including a complete listing of all courses taught within the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 bargaining unit at Carleton University. Candidates who have already contacted the department and submitted a CV recently need only indicate their interest in particular courses. NOTE that when applying to classes for which they have incumbency, applicants shall not be required to (re)submit documentation beyond their updated CV.

Required Academic Qualifications and Skills: Candidates should hold a MA in Criminology or in a related field. A strong preference will be given to candidates currently completing a PhD or who have completed a PhD in Criminology or a related field and who have a record of publications in criminology-related peer-reviewed journals.

Teaching Competence: Candidates are expected to have experience teaching at the university level in a related area. Candidates who provide evidence of success in teaching upper-year level seminar courses will be strongly preferred. Exceptionally, qualified candidates with no experience teaching at the university level in a related area may be considered.
