

Contract Instructor Opportunities Fall 2020 - Winter 2022

Institute of Criminology & Criminal Justice

Carleton University

Pursuant to Article 16 of the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applications are invited from members of the CUPE 4600-2 bargaining unit and other interested persons to teach the following Criminology courses during the 2020/2021 Fall/Winter terms.

Application Procedures and Deadlines:

All applicants must apply to the Institute Director in writing and in relation to each course for which they wish to be considered. For special topic courses, please propose a possible subject for the course within the cover letter.

Dr. Evelyn Maeder
Interim Director, Institute of Criminology & Criminal Justice
Carleton University
1125 Colonel by Drive, C562 Loeb Building
Ottawa, ON. K1S 5B6

Please send applications electronically by August 23rd, 2021 to robin.dunbar@carleton.ca

As per Article 15.3 of the current CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applicants are required to submit an up to date CV, including a complete listing of all courses taught within the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 bargaining unit at Carleton University. Candidates who have already contacted the department and submitted a CV recently need only indicate their interest in particular courses. NOTE that when applying to classes for which they have incumbency, applicants shall not be required to (re)submit documentation beyond their updated CV.

Winter 2022 (January – April)

CRCJ 4001E [0.5 credit]

Special Topics in Criminology

Examination of a special topic in criminology.

Prerequisite(s): CRCJ 1000, CRCJ 2100, fourth-year standing, and enrollment in a B.A. or Minor in Criminology and Criminal Justice, or by permission of the Institute.

Seminar three hours per week.

Required Academic Qualifications and Skills: Candidates should hold a Ph.D. in a related field.

Teaching Competence: Candidates are required to have experience teaching at the university level in a related area. Candidates who provide evidence of success in teaching upper-year level seminar courses will be strongly preferred.

Candidates are required to propose selected criminological topics, which are aligned with the Institute's critical orientation and its commitment towards social justice.

This course must be delivered remotely in online formats, which can be synchronous, asynchronous, or blended methods.

A note to all applicants: As per Articles 16.3-16.4 in the CUPE 4600-2 Collective Agreement, the posted vacancies listed above are first offered to applicants meeting the incumbency criterion.
