As per Article 15.3 of the current CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applicants are required to submit an up to date CV, including a complete listing of all courses taught within the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 bargaining unit at Carleton University. Candidates who have already contacted the department and submitted a CV recently need only indicate their interest in particular courses. NOTE that when applying to classes for which they have incumbency, applicants shall not be required to (re)submit documentation beyond their updated CV.

Fall 2022 (September – December)

CRCJ 3202C [0.5 credit]
Special Criminological Topics: "Digital Criminology"
The topics of this course may vary from year to year, and are announced in advance of registration. Prerequisite(s): CRCJ 1000 and third-year standing in Criminology and Criminal Justice or by permission. Lectures three hours per week.

Required Academic Qualifications and Skills: Candidates should hold a MA in Criminology or in a related field. A strong preference will be given to candidates currently completing a PhD or who have completed a PhD in Criminology or a related field and who have a record of publications on digital criminology in criminology-related peer-reviewed journals. A strong preference will also be given to candidates with a history of teaching in the area of digital and "big data" criminology, and who have experience in computer programming.

Teaching Competence: Candidates are required to have experience teaching at the university level in a related area. Candidates who provide evidence of success in teaching upper-year level seminar courses will be strongly preferred.

If public health restrictions allow, the planned mode of delivery for this course will be in-person face-to-face lectures. The University may require that all or part of this course be delivered remotely, including online.
