

Contract Instructor Opportunities Fall 2020 - Winter 2022

Institute of Criminology & Criminal Justice

Carleton University

Pursuant to Article 16 of the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applications are invited from members of the CUPE 4600-2 bargaining unit and other interested persons to teach the following Criminology courses during the 2020/2021 Fall/Winter terms.

Application Procedures and Deadlines:

All applicants must apply to the Institute Director in writing.

Dr. Evelyn Maeder
Interim Director, Institute of Criminology & Criminal Justice
Carleton University
1125 Colonel by Drive, C562 Loeb Building
Ottawa, ON. K1S 5B6

Please send applications electronically by October 25th, 2021 to robin.dunbar@carleton.ca

As per Article 15.3 of the current CUPE 4600 Unit 2 Collective Agreement, applicants are required to submit an up to date CV, including a complete listing of all courses taught within the CUPE 4600 Unit 2 bargaining unit at Carleton University. Candidates who have already contacted the department and submitted a CV recently need only indicate their interest in particular courses. NOTE that when applying to classes for which they have incumbency, applicants shall not be required to (re)submit documentation beyond their updated CV.

Winter 2022 (January – April)

CRCJ 2100D [0.5 credit]

Criminological Theories

Comprehensive survey of the plurality of criminological theories, from phrenology to contemporary theories concerned with issues related to crime and punishment. Students are encouraged to develop critical and reflexive thinking on various criminological issues and theories.

Prerequisite(s): CRCJ 1000 and second-year standing.

Lectures three hours per week.

Required Academic Qualifications and Skills: Candidates should hold a MA in Criminology or in a related field. A strong preference will be given to candidates currently completing a PhD or who have completed a PhD in Criminology or a related field and who have a record of publications in criminology-related peer-reviewed journals.

Teaching Competence: Candidates are required to have experience teaching at the university level in a related area. Candidates who provide evidence of success in teaching criminological theory at the second or third-year level will be strongly preferred.

If public health restrictions allow, the planned mode of delivery for this course will be in-person face-to-face lectures. The University may require that all or part of this course be delivered remotely, including online.

A note to all applicants: As per Articles 16.3-16.4 in the CUPE 4600-2 Collective Agreement, the posted vacancies listed above are first offered to applicants meeting the incumbency criterion.
