"What if the state no longer sexed us?: The political implications of abandoning a regime of assigned sex/gender status"

Friday, September 6, 2019 - 2:00 to 4:00 PM
3400 Canal Building

This paper critically explores the value, challenges, risks and potential of abandoning legal gender status. It emerges at the mid-point of a three year UK Research Council funded project, titled "The future of Legal Gender"

(see: <https://futureoflegalgender.kcl.ac.uk/>)

Paper presentation, followed by responses from:
