

ELEC 4907:

Tom Smy 4154 ME

tomsmy@cunet.carleton.ca

Engineering Physics student projects are available please enquire by email. Projects can be student initiated, however, generally I supervise numerical (coding) projects.

For electrical/SREE students various group projects addressing the use of numerical methods for the analysis of optical, electrical and heat flow problems are available. The requirements are for a strong background in programming.