
2145 rue Galt Ouest,

App 118, Sherbrooke (QC),

J1K 3A8, Canada

Phone : +1 (438) 927-7263 / mail : fabrice.anicet.dabire@usherbrooke.ca

Current Positions

Lecturer, Department of Economics, University of Sherbrooke, 2019 -

Teaching Assistant for Prof. Patrick Richard and Prof. Jean-François Rouillard, Department of Economics, University of Sherbrooke, 2019 -

Short-term Positions

Research Assistant for Prof. Jean-François Rouillard, Department of Economics, University of Sherbrooke, June 2020 – August 2020

Research Assistant for Mr. PALENFO, Department of Economic Policies, West African Economic and Monetary Union (WAEMU), June 2014 – September 2014

Research Assistant for Mr. BAYOULOU, Department of Economic Policies, Société Burkinabé des Fibres et Textiles (SOFITEX), June 2011 – September 2011

Education

2016- University of Sherbrooke, Sherbrooke, QC, (defense expected by the end of 2021)
PhD student in Economics

2013-2015 University of Auvergne (CERDI), France, 2015
Master's degree in Public Finance and fiscal policy in developing countries

2012-2013 Catholic University of West Africa, Burkina Faso, 2012
Master's degree in Economics

Research interests

Macroeconomics, International Macroeconomics, Monetary Economics, Fiscal Policy, Econometrics, Bayesian and Time Series Econometrics

Teaching experience

- University of Sherbrooke: International Finance (Summer 2021)
- University of Sherbrooke: Introduction to Econometrics (Winter 2021)
- University of Sherbrooke: Principles of Economics (Summer 2019, Summer 2020, Winter 2021, Summer 2021, course given in English)
- University of Sherbrooke: Introduction to Microeconomics (Winter 2020)
- University of Sherbrooke: Economic conditions analysis (Fall 2019)
- University of Sherbrooke: Teaching assistant in Macroeconomics (Summer 2019, 2021)
- University of Sherbrooke: Teaching assistant in Applied Econometrics (Fall 2018, 2019)
- University of Sherbrooke: Teaching assistant in time series modelling and forecast (Winter 2019, 2020)

Research experience

- Dabiré F., Khan H., Richard P., Rouillard J.-F.: Ô Canada! On the true north's strong government spending multiplier. In progress
- Dabiré F., Fortin M., Khan H., Richard P., Rouillard J.-F.: Fiscal policy in the context of post-Covid-19 economic recovery: Applied study to Quebec's case. Report sent to Québec's Minister of Finance in August 2020.
- Dabiré, F.:(PhD. thesis), Forward guidance and the exchange rate: a theoretical sign restricted VAR analysis. In progress
- Dabiré, F., Rouillard J.-F. :(PhD. thesis), Forward guidance in New-Keynesian model with Rotemberg sticky prices. In progress
- Dabiré, F.:(PhD. thesis), International spillovers of U.S. monetary policy on Emerging and developing countries. In progress

Qualifications

• QUANTITATIVE SKILLS

Econometrics (Stata, EViews), MATLAB, Macro modeling (DSGE model with Dynare and general equilibrium model with GAMS).

Excel, Word, Latex.

Grants and awards

- Excellent academic results grants ($2000): University of Sherbrooke (winter 2017, 2018)

Languages

French (native), English (TOEIC proficiency passed in Summer 2020 to give economic courses in English at University of Sherbrooke)

References

- Prof. Jean-François Rouillard
Department of Economics, University of Sherbrooke
P : 819-821-8000, poste 65605
Mail : Jean-Francois.Rouillard@USherbrooke.ca
- Prof. Patrick Richard
Department of Economics, University of Sherbrooke
P : 819-821-8000, poste 63233
Mail : patrick.richard2@usherbrooke.ca
- René Tapsoba
Resident Representative, African Department International Monetary Fund (IMF)
Bamako, Mali
P : +1 (202)-4608-772
Mail : rtapsoba@imf.org