COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is the first of two introductory courses in economics (ECON 1001 and 1002). This first course focuses on microeconomics and will cover basic economics principles and applications. Some of the topics covered will include a discussion of markets, how they work and when they can fail; international trade; environmental issues and the unintended consequences of different policies, among other topics. The purpose of the course is to show students how economists think and to serve as a foundation for further study in economics.

PREREQUISITES AND PRECLUSIONS

Precludes additional credit for ECON 1000 and FYSM 1003. A grade of C- or higher is required to qualify for ECON/MATH 1402, ECON 2009, ECON 2020, and ECON 3001. DEF(erred final grade) status at the end of this course precludes (continued) registration in any other course for which the former is a prerequisite.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK

Mankiw, Kneebone and McKenzie (2017) Principles of Microeconomics, 7th Canadian Edition and the Mindtap package. The corresponding Study Guides may also prove helpful. There are three bundles available in the bookstore. (1) The e-book version of the text and MindTap for about $60. (2) The print version of the text plus study guide and MindTap for about $120. (3) The bundle of the Micro + Macro book with MindTap for about $215 (The Macro book will be used in ECON 1002). Please be aware that the MindTap package is required for completion of assignments.

CULearn

This course will use CULearn to upload all materials used in class. CULearn will also show all announcements related to the course. Please make sure you have access to the course via CULearn.

TUTORIALS

Attendance to the tutorials is required. They will focus on practice problems of the topics covered in the lectures and may include graded quizzes that will help you understand the material covered in the lectures and prepare for the exams.

OFFICE HOURS

Taking advantage of my office hours is highly recommended. You should review the class material and come with specific questions. All questions are welcome. Most topics in this course build on the previous ones so do not let a week go by without reviewing the material and making sure you understand it. If you cannot make my office hours, try to attend the TA's office hours or email me to schedule a different time/day.

EMAIL POLICY

Please contact me via email only if you need to request an appointment because you cannot make my office hours or in case of emergency.

IN-CLASS PARTICIPATION

I will use the Polleverywhere polling system for live audiences to ask multiple-choice questions in class. Once the question is displayed, you will have a few minutes to work on the question and submit your answer via SMS, the polling website, or the website's app. Note that you will be charged regular SMS fees if you choose to answer via text message. You will get one bonus point for participating and one for providing the correct answer. The total bonus points can add up to 5% of your final grade. Note that these are bonus points, so you can still get the maximum grade without participating in any poll. However, these are also easy points that could make up for any lost marks in quizzes or exams.

In order to participate, you need to register at the link below with your Carleton email account:

<https://www.polleverywhere.com/>.

Before signing up for Poll Everywhere you should read and understand the privacy policy: www.polleverywhere.com/privacy-policy.

EVALUATION

Each student's grade will be calculated using the following instruments and weights:

Instrument	Weight
MindTap assignments	10%
Random quizzes	10%
Mid-term exams (20% each)	40%
Final exam	40%
Total	100%

MindTap Assignments: These are electronic assignments that will allow you to practice the concepts discussed in class. Deadlines will be announced in class and you will have a week to complete each assignment.

Quizzes: These will include short questions and will occur randomly during lecture or tutorial times. Please make sure you always have pen and paper with you when you come to class.

Midterm I: Wednesday, October 16th

Midterm II: Wednesday, November 20th

If you miss a mid-term examination for a documented compelling reason, the weight of the midterm will be reallocated to the final exam. No makeup midterm will be offered.

Final comprehensive examination: It will be formally scheduled during the examination period and will include all material covered in class.

Satisfactory Performance Criteria

Students must fulfil all of the preceding course requirements in order to achieve a passing grade (D- or higher). Failure to write the final examination when the student has achieved satisfactory performance during the term will result in a grade of 'F' until an appeal to write the deferred final exam, if granted by the Registrar's Office. A change of grade will be submitted when the deferred final exam has been written and the marks are available. See Academic Regulation 2.3 for the official meanings of the grades, and note that it stipulates that no course grades are final until approved by the Faculty Dean. Application to write a deferred final examination must be made at the Registrar's Office in writing no later than three working days after the original final examination was scheduled.

REGRADING

Students seeking reappraisal of their graded work (quizzes, exams) should contact the instructor within 2 weeks after they receive their grades.

PLAGIARISM

Please be aware that plagiarism is serious offense at Carleton and should be recognized and avoided. For further information on how to do so, please see "Pammett on Plagiarism and Paraphrasing" at www.carleton.ca/economics/courses/writing-preliminaries.
