Department of Economics
Carleton University
ECON 1002A
Winter 2021

Instructor: Patrick Coe
Email: patrick.coe@carleton.ca
Office Hours: Online on Tuesdays & Thursdays 10-11
Office: LOEB-B859

1 Overview
In conjunction with ECON 1001, this course provides students with a broad survey of economics and serves as a foundation for further study in the discipline.

1.1 Prerequisites and Preclusions
Precludes additional credit for ECON 1000 and FYSM 1003.
A grade of C- or higher is required to qualify for ECON 2102, and ECON 3001. DEF(erred final grade) status at the end of this course precludes (continued) registration in any other course for which the former is a prerequisite.

1.2 This Section
This section of ECON1002 is restricted to BEcon students and BGInS students. Students in other programs should register in an alternative section.

1.3 Course Delivery
The lectures for this course are asynchronous. They will be pre-recorded and can be watched on-demand, via links in CU Learn. The weekly tutorials are online and synchronous. Tutorial participation contributes to your final grade and so be sure to register for a tutorial that meets at a time when you can attend online.

1.4 Required Textbook and Online Resource
This course follows Mankiw, Kneebone and McKenzie (2020) Principles of Macroeconomics (8th Canadian Edition) and uses the associated learning and assignment tools provided through Mindtap. Access to the electronic version of the textbook and all course resources can be purchased via the textbook publisher’s website for about $75. A link to this website will be posted on cuLearn. Alternatively, hardcopies of the course textbook and access to all course resources can be purchased as a package via the University bookstore. Please be aware that a used copy of the textbook will almost certainly not come with a valid MindTap code. Access to MindTap is required to complete the weekly assignments which contribute to your overall grade.

1.5 TA Information
TBA.

1.6 Email
If you need to email the Instructor or a TA please do so using your Carleton email address.
1.7 Academic Support
The Centre for Student Academic Support (CSAS) is a centralized collection of learning support services designed to help students achieve their goals and improve their learning. CSAS offers academic assistance with online student success, course content, academic writing and skills development. For more details, visit the CSAS website (https://carleton.ca/csas/).

2 Evaluation
Student performance in this course is evaluated as follows:

2.1 Aplia Homework (15%)
Economics is something that you learn by doing rather than just listening. Each week you will have an assignment that requires you to do some economics. Deadlines will become available as we move through the term. Assignments will be released during the term and you will have about a week to complete each assignment. These assignments are online using the MindTap package.

2.2 Tutorial Participation (10%)
Weekly online tutorials will take place using the BigBlueButton on CU Learn. During these tutorials you will work in small groups to solve problems or interpret news articles using the methods covered in lectures.

2.3 Written Assignments (25%)
You will be required to submit short written assignments during the semester. Further details will be available later in the semester.

2.4 Midterm Exam (20%)
The midterm exam will take place on March 11th, 2021 at 10am Ottawa time. The list of topics to be covered will be available later in the semester.

2.5 Final Exam (30%)
This will take place using the final exam period and will be common to all Fall 2020 sections of ECON1001. Coverage will be chapters 5-18 of the textbook.

2.6 Late Assignments
Late assignments will not be accepted.

2.7 Missed Coursework
Students who can document a compelling reason for missing a midterm or written assignment will have the weight transferred to their final exam. Students who can document a compelling reason for missing more than two Aplia assignments or more than two online tutorials will also have the appropriate weight transferred to their final exam.

2.8 Documentation for a Missed Assignment or Midterm
In order to have the weight of a missed assignment, quiz or midterm transferred to the final exam you must provide written evidence from an authority explaining your absence (e.g. a doctor’s note or a police report). Documentation provided by students for a missed assignment or midterm will not be accepted. assignment, quiz or midterm may be subject to verification and therefore you must submit this documentation along with the form Consent to Release Information to a Third Party which you can download from CULearn.

2.9 Academic Standing and Deferred Final Exam:
Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean. Students who are unable to write the final exam may be eligible to write a deferred final exam. An application to write a deferred final exam must be made at the Registrar’s office.

2.10 Plagiarism:
Please be aware that plagiarism is a serious offence at Carleton and should be recognized and avoided. For further information on how to do so, see Pammett on Plagiarism and Paraphrasing, available at www.carleton.ca/economics/courses/writing-preliminaries

3 Requests for Academic Accommodation
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as below. For more information on academic accommodation, please contact the departmental administrator or visit: students.carleton.ca/course-outline

3.1 Pregnancy obligation
Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website

3.2 Religious obligation
Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website.

3.3 Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation or contact your PMC coordinator to send your instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term. You must also contact the PMC no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your instructor as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. For more details, visit the Paul Menton Centre website.

3.4 Survivors of Sexual Violence
As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and where survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton’s Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

3.5 Accommodation for Student Activities
Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, see the policy.

4 Course Material
Classroom teaching and learning activities, including lectures, discussions, presentations, etc., by both instructors and students, are copy protected and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s). All course materials, including slides, outlines, and other materials, are also protected by copyright and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s). Students registered in the course may take notes and make copies of course materials for their own educational use only. Students are not permitted to reproduce or distribute lecture notes and course materials publicly for commercial or non-commercial purposes without express written consent from the copyright holder(s).
