Course Objectives

This course provides students with economic concepts and practical analysis widely applied in managerial decision-making. The range of topics covered include determination of market demand and production output, market structures, pricing strategies, game theory, risk analysis, information asymmetries, and the impact of government regulation on business.

Prerequisites

Precludes additional credit for ECON 2001, ECON 2002 (no longer offered), ECON 2003 (no longer offered), and ECON 2020. Prerequisite(s): ECON 1000 or FYSM 1003 with a grade of C- or higher; MATH 1009 (or equivalent) with a grade of C- or higher. Students who believe they have taken a similar background course or courses from another university must provide appropriate documentation to the Department of Economics Undergraduate Administrator, Amanda Wright. A grade of C+ or higher is required to qualify for ECON 2030 and ECON 4020.
DEF(ered final grade) status at the end of this course precludes (continued) registration in any other course for which the former is a prerequisite.

Textbooks

Note: Additional readings may be assigned. The course will use calculus and some elementary probability and statistics. It is assumed that you know the material covered in MATH 1009. A good reference for the application of the mathematical tools in this course is Ch18 in AWDM.

Tutorials

The attendance for the tutorials is compulsory. They will focus on assignments and practice problems that will help you to understand better the material covered in the lectures and prepare for the midterm and final examinations.
Course Evaluation

The assessment in this course will be based on the following:

- 3 Assignments (6% each) 18%
  - Assignment 1 (September 20–September 29)
  - Assignment 2 (October 11–October 20)
  - Assignment 3 (November 22–December 1)
- In class assessment 12%
- Midterm Examination (November 3) 25%
- Final Examination (December 10 to 22) 45%

100%

- Failure to write the midterm exam will result in a grade of zero without proper documentation. For those who have a medical emergency for missing an exam, they should notify the instructor on the same/following day, followed by presenting the original doctors note to the instructor within a week and a makeup exam will be arranged.

- The final exam covers all material. It will be held during the December Examination Period as scheduled by the University.

Satisfactory Performance Criteria:

Students must fulfill all of the preceding course requirements in order to achieve a passing grade (D- or higher). No course grades are final until approved by the Faculty Dean. Note also that course grades may be scaled upwards or downwards in a rank-preserving manner to better fit the relevant departmental distributional norm. Application to write a deferred final examination must be made to the Registrars Office.

Regrading:

Students seeking reappraisal of their graded assignment or mid-term examination should contact the instructor within a week after they receive their grades. Students are required to send e-mail to the instructor with the subject "ECON 2009C-REQUEST FOR REGRADING" explaining the reason(s) for requesting a reappraisal of their graded work. Note: Reappraisals that do not conform to this standard will not be considered.

Plagiarism:

Please be aware that plagiarism is serious offense at Carleton and should be recognized and avoided. For further information on how to do so, please see Pammett on Plagiarism and Paraphrasing . Students may discuss assignments freely, but the final draft of an assignment must be the students own work. Simply copying anothers assignment is cheating.

Requests For Academic Accommodation:

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy Obligation:

write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide.
Religious Obligation:

write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities:

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally scheduled exam (if applicable).
