Carleton University Winter 2023

Department of English

ENGL 3306A: Shakespeare and Film

Prerequisites: 3rd-year standing or permission of the Department

Time/Day: Tuesday/Thursday 11:35 – 12:55 Location: SA 517

Instructor: Prof Janne Cleveland
Email: jannecleveland@cunet.carleton.ca
Office: 1913 Dunton
Office Hours: by appointment

Important note:

For information on deadlines for withdrawal from courses, please consult the Academic Year section of the Undergraduate Calendar (https://calendar.carleton.ca/academicyear/).

Course Outline:

Shakespeare's works continue to be revered in the 21st Century for their craft, their content, and their ability to continue to speak to contemporary audiences. In this course we will examine 6 of the Bard's works that have been adapted to film. We will pay specific attention to how these works still retain something to which contemporary audiences can relate, as well as the methods filmmakers have used to construct them. We might consider questions such as what do these plays say about the family relations we see played out? What kinds of conflicts and problem solving does the Bard provide for us? How does Shakespeare invite us to welcome aliens? We will continue to consider why these works are being redone, and specifically, why now. A guiding principle will be how do these works invite us to engage with our own challenges and triumphs in the 21st century?

Learning Outcomes:

Students can expect to develop the follow skills throughout the course:

- 1) an understanding of the historical context of the plays studied
- 2) an awareness of Shakespeare's stage craft
- 3) a deepened ability to read/analyze the plays critically
- 4) the ability to connect the political and social issues of Shakespeare's moment with our own
- 5) an understanding of the language of Shakespeare's texts

You will be expected to read each of the texts in advance of the class in which we begin to examine them. The edition you use is up to you, but it must have Act, scene, and line numbers included.

You must also make time to view the films before coming to class, as much of our discussion will rely on your knowledge of having seen them.

Watch the film versions listed below. You can find them on the Criterion database through the MacOdrum Library website. When you do a search for the film (making sure you've got the correct version according to the date and director), there will be a link to view it.

Students are expected to remain up to date with the deadlines and due dates provided by the instructor. All deadlines, assignments, and supplementary materials can be found on the Brightspace page for our course. Check regularly for any changes or additions.

Plays/films to be studied*

Romeo & Juliet; dir. Baz Luhrmann (1996)
Merchant of Venice; dir. Michael Radford (2004)
Titus; dir. Julie Taymor (1999)

Texts will be available at Haven Books (Seneca and Sunnyside) and should be ordered ahead online https://www.havenbooks.ca/

Films are available through the MacOdrum library website for streaming

* May be subject to change. Check on Brightspace prior to the beginning of the term for the final, full syllabus.

Evaluation

Scene study - short paper (10%) Due February 3 at midnight

In 4 - 5 double-spaced pages, you will choose one scene from the film version of Romeo & Juliet and construct a careful analysis that considers the following:

- 1) what do we learn about the characters in this scene? (gender, class, race, age that might be helpful in understanding why they behave as they do in the scene)
- 2) how is the scene constructed to reflect the larger themes of the play/film?
- 3) how do the production values and staging elements (costume, lighting, sound, use of space, etc.) contribute to our understanding of the meaning of the scene?

All assignments will use proper MLA formatting. We will discuss this assignment in greater detail in class.

cuPortfolio (15%)

There are instructions posted on Brightspace to help you set up your collection on cuPortfolio. This is a tool for reflecting on your learning and progress in the course. Due dates vary and will be discussed in class.

Personal Bio cuPortfolio (5%) due: January 27 Annotated Bibliography reflection (5%) due: March 24 Overall course reflection (5%) due: April 12

Annotated Bibliography (20%) Due March 10 at midnight

This assignment is the foundation of your final paper. From the list of essay topics provided on Brightspace, you will present a proposal for your final research paper that includes a thesis statement (argument), and a list of 5-7 scholarly research sources that you will use as evidence to support your argument. Each source will be properly cited and annotated in MLA format, and will contain a brief summary of each article used (no more than 2 or 3 sentences), and a careful explanation of how each resource supports your position, along with how you will use it to reinforce the argument in your paper. We will go over how to do an annotated bibliography in class, but here is also a very good resource to help you:

https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/614/1/ https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/

Paper workshop (15%) April 11 in class

This is an in-class assignment in which you will exchange feedback from your peers after getting your annotated bibliography assignment back. This is an opportunity to work on refining your argument for your final paper.

Final paper (30%) Due April 12 at midnight

This assignment represents the culmination of your learning throughout the term. There will be NO extensions, so if you encounter any extreme circumstances, contact me immediately so we can work out a solution. Essay topics will be available on Brightspace. Start planning now!

Attendance/Participation (10%)

It is important to attend class. Much will be discussed that happens organically and cannot be replicated otherwise. Your learning is much richer when you participate. That said, if you are sick (for any reason) please do NOT come to class and share that joy. Instead, email to say you're ill, post a request for notes on Brightspace, and make an appointment with your instructor if you have questions once you've seen the notes. If you follow this protocol, you will not be penalized for missing class.

Late Policy

All assignments are due electronically. Assignments are due at 11:59 of the date indicated for each. No assignments will be accepted after 5 (five) days. For extreme circumstances, I am open to negotiation. It is your responsibility to contact me if you need accommodation or are having difficulty completing the work on time.

All assignments will be submitted electronically on Brightspace

NOTE: All assignments must be completed in order to be eligible to pass the course. Failure to hand in all assignments may result in a grade of "F". Assignments submitted after the course has ended will NOT be accepted.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

Plagiarism

The University Senate defines plagiarism as "presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one's own." According to the Department examples of plagiarism include the following:

- any submission prepared in whole or in part, by someone else;
- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;

- using another's data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another's works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.

Plagiarism is a form of intellectual theft. It is a serious offence that cannot be resolved directly with the course's instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include failure of the assignment, failure of the entire course, or suspension from a program. Statement on Pandemic Measures

It is important to remember that COVID is still present in Ottawa. The situation can change at any time and the risks of new variants and outbreaks are very real. There are a number of actions you can take to lower your risk and the risk you pose to those around you including being vaccinated, wearing a mask, staying home when you're sick, washing your hands and maintaining proper respiratory and cough etiquette.

Feeling sick? Remaining vigilant and not attending work or school when sick or with symptoms is critically important. If you feel ill or exhibit COVID-19 symptoms do not come to class or campus. If you feel ill or exhibit symptoms while on campus or in class, please leave campus immediately. In all situations, you should follow Carleton's symptom reporting protocols.

Masks: Masks are no longer mandatory in university buildings and facilities. However, we continue to recommend masking when indoors, particularly if physical distancing cannot be maintained. We are aware that personal preferences regarding optional mask use will vary greatly, and we ask that we all show consideration and care for each other during this transition.

Vaccines: While proof of vaccination is no longer required to access campus or participate in in-person Carleton activities, it may become necessary for the University to bring back proof of vaccination requirements on short notice if the situation and public health advice changes. Students are strongly encouraged to get a full course of vaccination, including booster doses as soon as they are eligible and submit their booster dose information in cuScreen as soon as possible. Please note that Carleton cannot guarantee that it will be able to offer virtual or hybrid learning options for those who are unable to attend the campus.

All members of the Carleton community are required to follow requirements and guidelines regarding health and safety which may change from time to time. For the most recent information about Carleton's COVID-19 response and health and safety requirements please see the University's COVID-19 website and review the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs). Should you have additional questions after reviewing, please contact covidinfo@carleton.ca.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For accommodation regarding a formally scheduled final exam, you must complete the Pregnancy Accommodation Form (click here).

Religious obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details click here.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or mmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally scheduled exam (if applicable).

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working, and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and where survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: https://carleton.ca/equity/sexual-assault-support-services

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation will be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf
