

British Literature II

ENGL 3502 A

May – August 2019

Monday/Wednesday 6:05—8:55 pm

Dr. Morgan Rooney

Want to walk among your fellow mortals as an intellectual giant, much as Gulliver here towers over the Lilliputians?

Then join us in ENGL 3502 A this summer, where we'll be reading some of the most interesting literature produced in Britain circa 1700-1914 while developing your writing, research, and critical thinking skills.

Our conversations will be, we promise, much more informed than Gulliver's often misguided speculations!
