

NOTICE

This location will be used for traditional Indigenous ceremonial purposes.

DATE: _____

Carleton University respects and supports First Nations, Inuit and Métis cultural and spiritual practices on campus. These practices can take different forms, including smudging ceremony, pipe ceremony, or lighting of the qulliq.

Typically the amount of smoke associated with these types of ceremonies is minimal and lasts a very short time.

For more information contact:

Department of Equity Services

503 Robertson Hall

(613) 520-5622