Course Descriptions
Arts and Social Sciences

The following are descriptions of the courses available to ESP/IESP students in the Arts and Social Science stream for Winter 2020 semester. Please read the descriptions carefully before selecting your course preferences on your Course Selection Form.

Please note: courses are subject to cancellation and/or change.

- All new first year ESP/IESP students must register for CIED 1001 A (see Section A below)
- All ESP/IESP students must choose two half credits from the list of Elective Courses (see Section B below).

If you see a course with more than one section available, look at the Class and Workshop Schedule (on the ESP website) to see when each section is offered. Sometimes the same course is offered at different times, often (but not always) with different professors teaching each section (see Law for example).

A note about choosing courses: We have provided links (where possible) to the Elective Course outlines in Section B, below. These outlines tell you how you will be evaluated in that class. We recommend you look at the outlines (where possible) and use that information to help make your choice, according to your interests and strengths.

Section A:
CIED 1001: Selected Topics in Pop Culture
Instructor: Susan Burhoe

In this course we will explore modern American popular culture and how it both reflects and shapes our experience of the world around us. You will be introduced to basic cultural theory and learn how scholars approach cultural “texts”. How do we “read” a music video, an ad or a TV crime show? How do the cultural products we consume influence our idea of what’s normal? What’s up with our fascination with zombies? Why do we care what celebrities do? What is our relationship to brand names? What do our musical tastes “say” about who we are, what we identify with, and how we see ourselves? How does advertising influence our tastes and self-concept?

We’ll look at some of the debates around pop culture, and how they relate to competing social values and hierarchies. We’ll explore the ways in which cultural “anxiety” about technological and social change is reflected in cultural debates. Our emphasis will be on examining how our various “entertainments” and leisure activities shape our ideas about ourselves and the world we live in throughout the 20th and 21st centuries.

Weekly Topics may include:
- Diamonds are a Girl’s Best Friend: Hollywood Glamour
- “Oh… the HORROR!”: Comic Books and Moral Panic in the 50s
- Buying-in: Advertising, Marketing & Identity
- I cast “detect evil”: RPGs, Tabloid Talk Shows and Moral Panic
- Getting Your Groove On: Music, Race and Identity
- Apocalypse Now: Zombies, Survival and End-of-the-World Narratives
- Epic Fail: TV, the Web & Irony in Modern Culture
Section B: Elective Courses

All elective courses listed below will be accompanied by a three hour/week ESP/IESP Workshop (this will appear on your schedule as ESPW 1000). Please see the Class and Workshop Schedule for day and time information; and read the ESP/IESP Student Handbook for a description of workshops.
