

PIPR

2nd Annual Public Issues and Public Reason Conference

A Conference on Applied Ethics and Critical Social Sciences.

PIPR is a multidisciplinary conference at which graduate students from a variety of programs and disciplines present work that addresses current social and global challenges through the lenses of applied ethics, political theory, and the critical social sciences.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Douglas MacKay

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

"Government Policy Experiments and the Ethics of Randomization"

November 8-9, 2018 Carleton University Ottawa, Canada

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Abstracts (with title) must be a maximum of 500 words.

Accepted abstracts will be allocated a total of 40 minutes for presentation and discussion.

Deadline: Saturday, September 22, 2018

Abstracts should be sent to pirconference@gmail.com

Visit: <http://carleton.ca/ethics/conferences/> for more information.

