In this course we introduce students to some of the key problems facing European countries in the contemporary period. The course takes an interdisciplinary perspective (political science, economics, sociology) and will focus primarily on that part of Europe included in the European Union, but will also include comparisons to the situation in Russia.

The class will meet on Wednesdays 4:35-5:25PM and 5:35-6:25PM (likely a discussion section) and on Thursdays from 1:35-2:25PM. Students should attend all classes; a participation mark will be awarded based on participation in class discussion. Depending on enrolment in the course, the group may be divided into two discussion sections on most Wednesdays in the second hour.

Requirements:
*Mid-term quiz  (Nov. 5)  20 - 25%
Participation                      15%
*Final exam                          35 - 40%
Term essay (2000-2200 words)        25%

*The higher percentage value is taken for the component on which the student receives the higher mark.

Discussion group participation is an essential component of the course. Participation will be graded on the basis of attendance, the quality of regular contributions to the class discussion, and demonstrated familiarity with required course readings. Students who have something to say in the discussion but don’t feel they have the opportunity to do so may submit a one page (double-spaced, 12 pt.) comment to the instructor within 24 hours of class to get participation credit. This option is only available if the student has attended the relevant class session.

Term essay: Topics and detailed guidelines for the term essay will be handed out in the third week of class. The class essay will be due on November 27. The term essay will rely heavily on required course readings but additional readings may be required on each topic.

Please note the following important rules associated with this course:

- Any student who fails to appear for the mid-term tests or final examination will receive a failing mark in the course. Absences must be documented with a written medical or equivalent excuse. In that case a substitute test or examination will be scheduled.
- Penalties for late essays are as follows: Two points (of a % scale) for each day late (including weekends). Papers will not be accepted more than one week after the due date without a valid (e.g., written medical) excuse.

Readings are available in two coursepacks through the university bookstore. Other readings are on line through the university catalogue. In addition some readings are on reserve in the library. You may need to order the coursepack in advance as they are provided on demand after initial supplies are exhausted. B1 – coursepack, available in bookstore

Academic Accommodation
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide.

Religious obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

Plagiarism: The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They include a mark of zero for the plagiarized work or a final grade of “F” for the course.
