Course description:
This course is an interdisciplinary introduction to the position of Europe, the European Union, and the Russian Federation in international affairs. The temporal focus is on the period following the collapse of communism in Eastern Europe.

Note: This is offered both as a traditional course and as a Carleton University Online Course (CUOL). Students in Section A (Campus Section) are required to attend class lectures and discussions. Students enrolled in the V-section are expected to view lectures and participate in an online discussion forum. You should check the CUOL website for important information (www.carleton.ca/cuol). The course will use cuLearn and you should check the cuLearn website regularly.

Required textbooks:
The following books are available in the book store and will be used extensively in the course. It is highly recommended that you purchase these books.

Additional course readings may be accessed through Ares in CULearn (from library reserves or online).

Section A (Campus Section)
Thursdays: 14:30-16:25 Lecture Southam Hall 624
Fridays: 14:30-15:24, Southam Hall 404
(The lecture portions of this section will be recorded for CUOL but Friday discussion sections will ordinarily not be taped unless it is a review session.)

Section V (VOD Section)
Thursday: 14:30-16:30 Lecture (taped on CUOL)
Fridays 14:30-15:30. Lecture some Fridays
Online discussion forum
CUOL Web Channel Options
Options: Video on Demand is available for this course. This allows you to watch or re-watch lectures and discussion sessions on your own schedule. (However, attendance at the lecture and discussions groups is required for Section A. Please see below). A link to more information is provided on the CULearn page. See the CUOL website for more information (http://carleton.ca/cuol/access-courses/)

Students are advised to allow an extra 30 minutes at the end of the scheduled lecture broadcast time when viewing or recording lectures broadcast on the Rogers channel 243.

cuLearn lecture slides (posted after most lectures), course information, and discussion boards are available only through this modality.

Requirements:
- Mid-term test (Feb. 15) 20-25%*
- Tutorial participation (Section A) or online forum (Section V) 20%
- Term paper proposal (due Feb. 4) 5%
- Term paper (due March 25) 20%*
- Final Exam 30-35%*

*The higher mark will be given the higher percentage

Class participation: (for A section)
For the tutorial section will meet during nine of the class weeks, as per the course outline below. Students should come prepared with a comment on a relevant news event from the week, and at least one comment on the discussion questions; discussion questions will be posted on CULearn each week. You will be marked on your attendance and participation, and are expected to be familiar with required course readings for the discussion. Failure to attend and participate in the discussion sessions will adversely affect your mark in the course. This session will not be recorded for the VOD section. You are also expected to attend all lectures.

Online participation: (for V section)
The group discussion session held on Friday will normally not be recorded; in lieu of this you are expected to participate in an online discussion section during nine weeks of the semester, as indicated in the course outline. Two discussion questions will be provided through cuLearn each week. You will be divided into discussion groups. Each week your participation must consist of:
1) Two posts of about 150-200 words each. Each one should address one of two designated discussion questions. The post should demonstrate familiarity with the week’s required readings and may draw on lecture material.
All posts have to be submitted on cuLearn by Tuesday at 10 p.m. following the relevant class sessions. Posts submitted after this deadline will not be taken into account. The lowest mark on your posts will be omitted.

Term paper proposal (both sections). Each students must complete a term paper proposal and a term paper. The proposal is due on February 4 at 4 p.m.. See guidelines below for the term paper. Your term paper proposal should designate the topic that you will write on, with a one paragraph discussion of how you will approach your paper. It should also list the academic sources that you intend to consult. Students in both sections should submit their papers through the Drop-box on CULearn.

Term paper (both sections). Each student is expected to write a term paper of 1800-2000 words on a topic from a list to be distributed through cuLearn. You may propose your own topic, but this must be approved. Each paper will require analysis of three academic readings beyond course required readings, as well as two additional sources, which may be newspaper articles or internet materials from reputable sites. The paper is due on March 25 at 14:30 p.m. Students in the A section must submit their papers in hard copy to the instructor in class. Late assignments may be put in the EURUS drop box outside the EURUS departmental office on the 3rd floor of Richcraft Hall as well as in the digital drop-box on CULearn. Students in the V-section must submit their papers through cuLearn digital dropbox. Papers should not be sent by email.

Academic Integrity Exercise. This material will be covered in a class session and you are responsible for assuring that you comply with academic integrity policies of the university. You will be provided with the opportunity to complete an optional academic integrity exercise outside of class to help you better understand types of plagiarism. It will be posted on CULearn. Please see the section on Plagiarism below as well.

Please note the following important rules associated with this course:
- Any student who fails to appear for the mid-term test or final exam without a valid medical or equivalent excuse, cannot receive a passing mark in the course. With a valid excuse a substitute test or examination will be scheduled.
- Any student who fails to hand in the class term paper will receive a failing mark in the class. See penalties for late papers and other restrictions for late papers below.
- Penalties for term paper proposals and term papers are as follows: Two points (of a % scale) for each day late (including weekends), unless a valid medical (or equivalent) excuse is provided. Papers will not be accepted more than one week after the due date without a valid (e.g., written medical) excuse.

Email policy
If possible, please send emails to the TAs and to Prof. DeBardeleben through the cuLearn email system. This will allow us to easily identify your email as related to this course and to respond more efficiently. Every effort will be made to respond to emails promptly, however please allow 24-48 hours for a response. Emails received on weekends may not receive a response until early the following week. Emails during the break week may require a longer response time.

PLAGIARISM

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own”. This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.
All suspicions of plagiarism will be dealt with according the Carleton’s Academic Integrity Policy (http://carleton.ca/studentaffairs/academic-integrity/). The Associate Dean of the Faculty will conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student. Penalties are not trivial. They may include a mark of zero for the plagiarized work or a final grade of F for the course.

Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).

SUBMISSION, RETURN, AND GRADING OF TERM WORK

Written assignments must be submitted directly to the instructor(s) according to the instructions in the course outline. If permitted in the course outline, late assignments may be submitted to the drop box in the corridor outside room 3305 Richcraft Hall. Assignments will be retrieved every business day at 4 p.m., stamped with that day's date, and then distributed to the instructors. For written assignments not returned in class please attach a stamped, self-addressed envelope if you wish to have your assignment returned by mail. Final exams are intended solely for the purpose of evaluation and will not be returned.

Final standing in courses will be shown by alphabetical grades. The system of grades used, with corresponding grade points is:
