Course description:

This course is an interdisciplinary introduction to the position of Europe, the European Union, and the Russian Federation in international affairs. The temporal focus is on the period following the collapse of communism in Eastern Europe.

Note: This is offered both as a traditional course and as a Carleton University Online Course (CUOL). Students in Section A (Campus Section) are required to attend class lectures and discussions. Students enrolled in the V-section are expected to view lectures and participate in an online discussion forum. You should check the CUOL website for important information (www.carleton.ca/cuol). The course will use cuLearn and you should check the cuLearn website regularly.

Required textbooks:

The following books are available in the book store and will be used extensively in the course. It is highly recommended that you purchase these books.

Stephan Keukeleire and Tom Delreux. The Foreign Policy of the European Union, 2nd edition (Palgrave, 2014)

Andrei P. Tsygankov, Russia's Foreign Policy, 4th edition (Rowman and Littlefield, 2016)

A small number of additional course readings may be accessed through Ares in CULearn (from library reserves or online).

Section A (Campus Section)

Thursdays: 2:30-4:30 Lecture Southam Hall 624

Fridays: 14:30-15:30, Southam Hall 404 (lecture on Jan. 6, Feb. 3) Note that the mid-term exam is scheduled for Friday, Feb. 10, 18:00-19:30.

The regular Friday class will not be held on Feb. 10.

(The lecture portions of this section will be recorded for CUOL but discussion sections will ordinarily not be taped unless it is a review session.)

Section V (VOD Section)

Thursday: 14:30-16:30 Lecture (taped on CUOL)

Fridays 14:30-15:30. Lecture some Fridays, e.g., Jan. 6, Feb. 3, review session April 7)

Online discussion forum

Note that the mid-term exam is scheduled for Friday, Feb. 10, 18:00-19:30
The regular Friday class will not be held on Feb. 10.

CUOL Web Channel Options

Options: Video on Demand is available for this course. This allows you to watch or re-watch lectures and discussion sessions on your own schedule. (However, attendance at the lecture and discussions groups is required for Section A. Please see below). A link to more information is provided on the CULearn page. See the CUOL website for more information (<http://carleton.ca/cuol/access-courses/>)

Students are advised to allow an extra 30 minutes at the end of the scheduled lecture broadcast time when viewing or recording lecturs broadcast on the Rogers channel 243.

cuLearn

cuLearn lecture slides (posted after most lectures), course information, and discussion boards are available only through this modality.

Requirements:

Mid-term test (Feb. 10 6-7:30 p.m.)	20-25%*
Class participation (Section A) or online forum (Section V)	20%
Short paper	20%
Final Exam	35-40%*

*The higher weight will be given to the higher mark, and the lower weight to the lower mark.

Class participation: (for A section).

Class participation consists of attendance at lectures (mandatory) and discussion groups (mandatory) on most Fridays. For the discussion group, students should come prepared with a comment on a relevant news event from the week, and thoughts on the discussion questions that will be provided in advance. You will be marked on your attendance and participation, and are expected to be familiar with required course readings for the discussion. Failure to attend and participate in the discussion sessions will adversely affect your mark in the course. This session will not be recorded for the VOD section. You are expected to attend all lectures.

An online discussion forum will also be created for Section. A. If you attend a regular discussion session but do not have a chance to make your comment at the session, you may post your comment online within 24 hours after the session. This will allow you to improve your participation mark. However, this option is ONLY available to A section students who have attended the relevant discussion session. Participation in this online forum is completely optional except for Week 11 (see class schedule below).

Online participation: (for V section)

The group discussion session held on Friday will normally not be recorded; in lieu of this you are expected to participate in an online discussion section. Two discussion questions will be provided through cuLearn each week. You will be divided into discussion groups, each with about 8-14 students. Each week your participation must consist of:

- 1) Two posts of about 150- 200 words each. One should address each of the two designated discussion questions. The posts should demonstrate familiarity with the week's required readings and may draw on lecture material.
- 2) Two additional posts that respond to comments by another student. This may be on either one of the two discussion topics. These should be no more than 100 words each.

All posts have to be submitted on cuLearn by Wednesday at 10 p.m. following the relevant class sessions. Posts submitted after this deadline will not be taken into account. The lowest mark on your posts will be omitted.

Online lecture comment and question forum (Available for Sections A and V, but optional):

Here you are invited to post comments or questions for the instructor specifically related to the lectures, through a special cuLearn discussion forum. You may wish to comment on points you found particularly interesting in the lectures, or questions that were left unanswered by the lectures. This can provide useful feedback for Prof. DeBardeleben. Participation in this forum is completely optional.

Short papers (both sections): Each student is expected to write a paper (1500-1700 words) on a topic from a list to be distributed through cu Learn. Each paper will require analysis of two extra readings beyond weekly required reading. The essay is due on March 17 at 14:30 p.m. Students in the A section must submit their papers in hard copy to the instructor in class. Late assignments may be put in the EURUS drop box outside the EURUS departmental office on the 3rd floor of Richcraft Hall. Students in the V-section may submit their papers through cuLearn digital dropbox. Papers should not be sent by email.

Please note the following important rules associated with this course:

- Any student who fails to appear for the mid-term test or final exam without a valid medical or equivalent excuse, cannot receive a passing mark in the course. With a valid excuse a substitute test or examination will be scheduled.
- Any student who fails to hand in the class paper will receive a failing mark in the class. See penalties for late papers and other restrictions for late papers below.
- Penalties for late essays are as follows: Two points (of a % scale) for each day late (including weekends), unless a valid medical (or equivalent) excuse is provided. Papers will not be accepted more than one week after the due date without a valid (e.g., written medical) excuse.

Email policy

If possible, please send emails to the instructor of TAs through the cuLearn email system. This will allow us to easily identify your email as related to this course and to respond more efficiently. Every effort will be made to respond to emails promptly, however please allow 24-48 hours for a response. Emails received on weekends may not receive a response until early the following week. Emails during the break week may require a longer response time.

Academic Accommodations:

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send the instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). Requests made within two weeks will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with the instructor to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website (www.carleton.ca/pmc) for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

Religious Observance: Students requesting accommodation for religious observances should apply in writing to their instructor for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory academic event. Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student. Instructors and students may contact an Equity Services Advisor for assistance (www.carleton.ca/equity).

Pregnancy: Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. Then, make an appointment to discuss your needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Plagiarism:

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own”. This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;

- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another's data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another's works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.

All suspicions of plagiarism will be dealt with according to the Carleton's Academic Integrity Policy (<http://carleton.ca/studentaffairs/academic-integrity/>). The Associate Dean of the Faculty will conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student. Penalties are not trivial. They may include a mark of zero for the plagiarized work or a final grade of F for the course.

Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).

Submission, Return and Grading of Term Work:

Written assignments must be submitted directly to the instructor(s) according to the instructions in the course outline. If permitted in the course outline, late assignments may be submitted to the drop box in the corridor outside room 3305 River Building. Assignments will be retrieved every business day at 4 p.m., stamped with that day's date, and then distributed to the instructors. For written assignments not returned in class please attach a stamped, self-addressed envelope if you wish to have your assignment returned by mail. Final exams are intended solely for the purpose of evaluation and will not be returned.

Final standing in courses will be shown by alphabetical grades. The system of grades used, with corresponding grade points is:

Percentage	Letter grade	12-point scale	Percentage	Letter grade	12-point scale
90-100	A+	12	67-69	C+	6
85-89	A	11	63-66	C	5
80-84	A-	10	60-62	C-	4
77-79	B+	9	57-59	D+	3
73-76	B	8	53-56	D	2
70-72	B-	7	50-52	D-	1

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by an instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

Carleton E-mail Accounts: All email communication to students from the Institute of European, Russian and Eurasian Studies will be via official Carleton university e-mail accounts and/or cuLearn. As important course and university information is distributed this way, it is the student's responsibility to monitor their Carleton and cuLearn accounts.

Official Course Outline: The course outline posted to EURUS website is the official course outline.
