

Research Seminar: The Interaction of National and International Administrations in the European Energy Framework

Energy policy in Europe is characterized by interdependence between national and international actors. The presenter will address how coordinated relations reflect power structures between administrations.

Tuesday, October 8, 2019
2:30pm – 3:30pm
Room 3302, EURUS Seminar
Room,
Richcraft Hall
Carleton University

Registration not required.

Sebastian Widmuch is a PhD candidate and visiting scholar from the Technische Universität Darmstadt in Germany. He is a research associate in the project “Linking national and international administrations – The impact of multilevel coordination”, funded by the German Research Foundation (DFG).

This event is an activity of the Jean Monnet Network on EU-Canada Relations, co-funded by the Erasmus Plus program of the European Union, by Carleton University, and partner universities

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Carleton
UNIVERSITY