

Improvising Connections: Inclusive Online Music-Making for Individuals with Aphasia

- Analysis of the impact of group music-making via online with aphasic individuals
- Collaboration with the Aphasia Centre of Ottawa (ACO) and the participant group
- Delivery of sessions incorporating music-making, music-listening, singing, and focus group questions
- Reported benefits of online group music-making = creativity, inclusivity, health benefits, community, and accessibility

Presented by: Natalie Marozzo
Supervisor: Dr. Jesse Stewart