Course Description

The Film Studies Practicum offers students practical film- and media-related experience, providing opportunities to work with Ottawa area arts institutions, companies, and associations. It gives students the opportunity to put the skills and knowledge they've learned at the university into practice, critically reflect on the important work performed by local film and media institutions, and gain additional skills.

Students are required to complete 96 hours of work for the institution of the course of the semester (the equivalent of one eight-hour day per week for 12 weeks, but distributed according to the institution's needs and student's schedule). Exceptions must be approved by the Practicum & Internship Coordinator. Students may only do a Practicum for one semester, earning 0.5 credits. The course is graded Satisfactory (SAT) or Unsatisfactory (UNS), and therefore does not contribute to the student's GPA.

Note: This course involves participation in an unpaid work placement as part of the requirements. Please visit the Risk and Insurance website to review the information on unpaid work placements and to complete the insurance forms required.

See cuLearn course page for semester-specific writing deadlines.

Applying for a Practicum

Note: Students must have fourth-year standing to apply.

1. Consult the available positions posted online and decide on your top three choices.
2. Request an override for the course via Carleton Central.
3. Email an application form and resume to laura.horak@carleton.ca before the application deadline. The application form can be found online. The resume must be polished and tailored to the desired job. I recommend visiting Career Services (401 Tory Building) to get feedback on your resume before applying.
4. Once the applications have been received, I will suggest a match and forward the student's application to the institution.
5. If the institution is interested, the on-site supervisor will interview the student and then contact me with their decision.
6. If the student is accepted, I will instruct the Undergraduate Administrator to approve the student's override. The student should then enroll in the course via Carleton Central.
7. The student meets with the on-site supervisor to determine the student's hours and core duties and to fill out the required paperwork. Students must give the paperwork to Caroline Karasiuk (caroline.karasiuk@carleton.ca, SP 42B3) by the second week of the Practicum.

Students may also seek out and secure internships at another organization that we don't have an existing partnership with. In this case, the student should share the requirements with the institution, secure the position, and then ask the on-site supervisor to contact me in order to ensure that the tasks and number of hours are appropriate.

I will do my best to place students, but I cannot guarantee that every student will receive a position. Students should therefore register in a full compliment of courses for the semester in question, in case they are not able to do a Practicum. If they get in, they can then drop one of the courses.

Expectations and Assessment

During the Practicum, students are required to perform the following:

- The tasks set by the on-site supervisor and described in the position description. Students are required to complete 96 hours of work for the institution by the end of the semester. At the end of the Practicum, the on-site supervisor will complete an evaluation form assessing the student's work.
- Attend two required group meetings with other practicum students arranged by the Practicum & Internship Coordinator. At these meetings, students will share information about their experiences, ask questions, and discuss the required assignments.

- Keep a journal that documents and reflects on the work done for the institution. Students should document the dates they work, the hours worked each day, and the tasks completed. They should also reflect on this work -- what have they observed about the institution? What is the institution trying to achieve? Why is the workflow organized the way it is? How does the institution assess its success? What challenges does the institution face? Make sure to update the journal immediately upon completing the day's work - don't try to fill it in at the end.

The first set of journal entries are due on the First Writing Deadline and the second set are due on the Final Writing Deadline (see Deadline table above.)

- Write four short essays. These should be double-spaced, in Times New Roman, 12 point font, saved as a Microsoft Word document (.docx). Email the essays to laura.horak@carleton.ca. Essay #1 is due on the First Writing Deadline. Essays #2-4 are due on the Last Writing Deadline (see Deadline table above).
 - Essay #1: Write a short ethnography of the organization where you work. (3-4 pages) Pretend you are a Martian anthropologist. Describe how the institution functions and think about why it functions that way. Use specific examples from your journal as examples.
 - Essay #2: Identify challenges facing the organization and possible solutions. (2-3 pages)
 - Essay #3: Describe your practicum experience for the departmental website. Encapsulate the experience for possible posting on the Film Studies website. What was most valuable about the experience? What did you learn? (1 paragraph)
 - Essay #4: How my coursework informed my practicum experience and how the practicum will influence the courses I take in the future. The emphasis in this essay is to bring together theory and practice: to reflect on what you have learned so far both in and out of the classroom and how these things are related (3-4 pages)

Upload all written work to cuLearn.

This course will receive a final grade of satisfactory or unsatisfactory.

- 75% of the final grade will be determined by the on-site supervisor's evaluation of the student, via the Evaluation Form.
- 25% of the final grade will be determined by the Practicum & Internship Coordinator, based on the student's written work.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR UNDERGRADUATE FILM STUDIES COURSES

School-Wide Undergraduate Regulations:

<http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/>

University Deadlines:

Final submission of assignments is governed by the deadlines imposed by the University. All assignments are due no later than the deadlines set by the University Senate for each semester. Instructors are not allowed to grant extensions beyond these dates. Students who cannot meet these deadlines must request a deferral from the Registrar's Office.

Instructional Offences, especially Plagiarism:

Students are to read and abide by the policies stated in the calendar under "Student Conduct." The following definition of plagiarism can be found under "Academic Integrity Standards."

<http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/acadregsuniv14/> Plagiarism is presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one's own. Plagiarism includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, art works, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, and material on the Internet.

Additional examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

- submitting a take home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, paraphrased material, without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another's data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another's works and/or failing to use quotation marks.

Academic Accommodations For Students With Disabilities

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website <http://www.carleton.ca/pmc/> for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).
