

November is Adoption Month!

A Special Film Event is being sponsored by Carleton University and the Ottawa Adoption Community

A Place Between: The Story of an Adoption
By the National Film Board of Canada

First Nation adoptees struggle to bridge the gap between birth and adoptive families.
This movie highlights the issues of the birthmother and the adoptive mother.

Saturday, November 16th, 2013
from 1:00 pm-4:00 pm

Room DT 2017, Dunton Tower
Carleton University

Free admission - Parking $3.00

The film will be followed by an informal panel discussion moderated by Dr. Karen March

Please RSVP to sarah@adoption.ca by Nov 14th

CU at the Movies!!

Carleton University

Joint Chair of Women's Studies, Carleton
& University of Ottawa
Institute of Women and Gender Studies
Department of Sociology/Anthropology

Ottawa Adoption Community

Parent Finders Ottawa
Adoption Council of Canada
Private Adoption Professionals of Eastern Ontario
Children's Aid Society of Ottawa