

Program at-a-glance

FOOD MATTERS & MATERIALITIES
ONLINE CONFERENCE
SEPTEMBER 22–25, 2021

All times are Eastern Daylight Time (EDT)
(Ottawa, Canada). For time conversions, please visit timeanddate.com/worldclock/.

September 22

17h (EDT)	Plenary: Food Matters Inequities & Resistance: How Activists and Practitioners are Fighting Back Against Social & Environmental Injustices
----------------------	---

September 23

9h00– 10h05 (EDT)	Panel 1: Food and Music as Transdisciplinary Sensory Cultures	Panel 2: Inequalities & the Production/ Consumption of Foods
	Erik Fooladi Disciplinary Encounters in Flavour and Music Anu Hopia Multimodal Interaction Between Food and Music Antti-Ville Kärjä Ethnicity, Food and Music	Isabella Altoe Thinking of food futures: resisting capitalism through agroecological practices Cameron Butler “Another Discount, Garbage Grocery Store”: Food Inaccessibility as Gentrification Strategy Nora Faltmann Food Safety Practices in Ho Chi Minh City: Urban Gardening, Direct Marketing, and the Crisis of Confidence in Farming
10h35– 11h40 (EDT)	Panel 3: Food &/In Art & Creative Practice	Panel 4: The Cultural Politics of Food Discourses
	David Szanto & Simon Laroche Probing Food and Power With Robotized Spoonfuls of Edible Paste Agata Stronciwilk Food Art and Feminism. The Case of “Black Protests” in Poland Pamela Tudge Encounters: Re-engaging With the Materials of Food and Waste	Simona Bondavalli Dinner’s Ready! Or is It?: Food knowledge, Gender Roles and the Unruly Matter of Italian Cuisine in 1970s Cooking Game Shows Sohni Chakrabarti Imagining a Disabled Diaspora: Reading Chronic Illness Through the Lens of Food in Porochista Khakpour’s Sick: A Memoir Defne Karaosmanoglu Food as Soft Power? Reflections on Turkish Public Diplomacy
12h00– 12h50 (EDT)	Artist Talk

(Continued on next page)

September 23 (cont.)

13h00–14h20 (EDT)	Panel 5: Markets, Food Chains, & The Creation of Value	Panel 6: Indigenous Contributions to Critical Food Studies: Lessons from Community-based Case Studies from Turtle Island
	Irena Knezevic Framing Good Food: Communicating Value of Community Food Initiatives in the Midst of a Food Crisis Alice Bischof Lettuce Logic: How Urban Agriculture Organisations Make Social and Environmental Values Matter Candan Turkkan Both the Problem and the Solution: How the Actors of Istanbul's Urban Food Supply Chain Understand Neoliberalism Lynne Milgram Negotiating Alternative Production and Marketing of Northern Philippine Specialty Arabica Coffee	Lisa Young & Shailesh Shukla Antawaynchikaywin mino pimatisiwin oonji (Hunting and Fishing Food Goodlife): Learning from Elders of Misko-zibiing (Bloodvein River First Nation) in Manitoba Taylor Wilson Pathways to Revitalization of Indigenous Food Systems: Decolonizing Diets Through Indigenous-Focused Food Guides Hannah Johnson Indigenous Food Sovereignty Through Tribal Community Gardens: the Implications of Four Case Studies in Minnesota and Wisconsin Majing Oloko Supporting Youth Participation in Food Preservation Within Traditional and Local Food Systems
15h00 (EDT)	Keynote 1: Food, Work, & Radical Care, by Hi'ilei Julia Kawehipuaakahaopulani Hobart

September 24

9h30–10h35 (EDT)	Panel 7: Food Materials, Environments, & The Politics of Knowledge Production	Panel 8: Food & Microbial Relationships
	Emily Reisman Uprooting Turrón: Political Economy and the Malleable Materiality of a Protected Geographical Indicator Fabiana Li Materiality and the Equivalence of Seeds in the Global Expansion of Quinoa Priya Chandrasekaran What Does It Mean to Be a Plant, an Orphan, a Superfood and a Masculinist-Colonial-Capitalist Construct?	Danielle Wilde Fæces and Species: the Food We Eat, the Food We Produce, the Food We are Alexandra Widmer Eating for the Microbiome: From Fizzing Jars to Excel Sheets Maya Hey Conspiring to be Convivial: How the Material Practices of Fermentation Come to Matter

(Continued on next page)

September 24 (cont.)

11h00–12h15 (EDT)	Workshop: Everyone Makes Waste: Using Accessible Art and Design Practices to Increase the Visibility of Food-based Waste, by Pamela Tudge Workshop limited to Conference participants first.
13h00–14h20 (EDT)	Panel 9: Mediatized Foods & Foodways Jacqueline Botterill What is the Matter? Exploring the Intersection of Smart Phone Use and Food Consumption Nicholas Bascuñan-Wiley Eating Apart Together: Online Foodways in a Time of Social Distancing Arlette Martinez Food in the Times of COVID: Digital Ways of Sourcing, Preparing and Eating Kendra Lee Sanders The Quantified Cow: Digitally Tracking Livestock with Wearable Devices	Panel 10: Foodways & Multiculturalism Edda Starck & Raúl Matta Social Integration through the Kitchen: Cooking and Eating with Others in Germany Robert Nelson Food Matters at the Border: Arab Foodways in the Windsor/Detroit Region Jonathan Roberts Whiteness and Farmers Markets in Nova Scotia Koby Song-Nichols & Katie Konstantopoulos It's in the Duck: Diaspora and Thinking Dialectically in a Settler Colonial Food System
15h00–16h20 (EDT)	Panel 11: Intersections of Food and Memory in Asia: Narratives of Culture, Nationalism, Gender and Conflict Geetha Sukumaran “Puttu”, “Vadai” and Trenches: Gendered Memories of Tamil Resistance Movements Sanchia deSouza Picnicking with Modernity: Milk, Public Memory and the Imagination of the Urban in 20th-century Bombay Ian Turner Food and Sensory Memory in a Nepali Ritual Tradition Jackson Guo Tracing the Roots of ‘Yeast and Malt’: Alcohol and National Memory of a Drunken Past in Early Twentieth-Century China	Panel 12: Food, Interspecies Relationships & Colonialism Sophie Chao Sharing Skin, Tasting Wetness: Sago Palm as Food, Matter, and Kin in West Papua Natalie Doonan Wild Matters on the Montreal Shores of the St. Lawrence Joanne Taylor Food Security and Food Sovereignty: the Materialities of Damming on the Floodplains of the Creston Valley of British Columbia Kelsey Speakman Meat-ing in the middle: Supermarkets, trust, and the beef supply chain in Canada

September 25

9h30-10h50 (EDT)	Panel 13: Food & Health(ism)	Panel 14: Food Matters & Cultural Identities
	Janis Goldie When Every Bite Could Kill: Examining the Material Experiences of Caretakers of Children with Food Allergies Linea Cutter Binge-Restrict-Repeat: An Examination of the Neoliberal Eating Regime Myriam Durocher “Healthy” for Whom? “Healthy” Food’s Effectivities, Avocados, and the Production of Differentiated Bodies Alissa Overend Is There a Truth of The Matter? The Promise of Post-truth For Food Studies	Alfonso Gómez Rossi & Onassis Morales The Rejection of Mexican Quelites: A Study of Cultural Culinary Hegemony in Mexico Alessandro Gerosa The Invention of Authentic Food: Constructing Traditionality Through Ingredients and Matters Ran Xiang The Magic Leaf: Tea and Materiality Brigit Ramsingh ‘From the Tapped Tree to Your Table’: Marketing Maple Syrup in Early 20th Century Canada
11h10 (EDT)	Keynote 2: Structures & Specificities: Nourishing Acts in Violent Times, by Emily Yates-Doerr

See our conference website to learn more about the conference and to consult the chairs/discussants bios.

