

Gathering Strength

Examining past, present and future trends in Indigenous, Northern and Canadian Policy

Tuesday June 13th, 2023, 8:30 – 4:30
2220 Richcraft Hall, Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario
Program

8:30 am - Registration, coffee and networking

9:00 am - Opening ceremonies
Dr. Rafik Goubbran, Vice President (Research and International), Chancellor's Professor, Carleton University

9:30 - Keynote address
Satsan (Herb George), We'tsuwet'en Hereditary Chief, Frog Clan and Director, Centre for First Nations Governance

10:00 am - Coffee and visiting

10:30 am - Northern Development: Past, Present and Future
Katherine Minich, moderator, with John Crump, Maggie Crump and Stephen Van Dine

11:30 am - Tributes

11:45 am - Lunch (provided)

1:00 pm - Gathering Strength: First Nations peoples on the path to self-determination
Catherine MacQuarrie – moderator, with Amsey Maracle, Terry Goodtrack and Darcy Gray

2:00 pm - A Little Imagination Required: Ongoing challenges for Canadian Federalism
Michael Prince – Moderator with Christopher Alcantara, Leslie Seidle and Julie Simmons

3:00: pm - Coffee and visiting

3:15 pm - In Conversation - "Plus ça change"

Long-time friends and colleagues, Katherine Graham and Frances Abele will talk over some of the highlights of Frances' career and her hopes for the future in Canadian policy.

4:00 pm - Closing

Carleton
University

Centre for Community
Innovation