ÉVALUATION

- Participation and attendance

A student must attend a minimum of 80% of the classes per semester in order to be considered for a passing grade for that semester. Failure to meet this requirement may result in a failing grade. The use of any electronic devices that may prevent students to fully participate (particularly cell phones) is prohibited.

- Requirements for written and oral work

The grade for any assignment (oral or written) that is not completed or handed in by the specified deadline (date and time) will be reduced by 10% per day.

- Term work, tests and examinations

Students who are unable to attend in-class written tests/examinations or oral examinations must give prior notice and be fully supported by a medical certificate or other appropriate documentation. A missed oral/written test or exam will receive a grade of zero unless the guidelines stated above are followed. No reason other than medical or serious family matters will be accepted for missed tests and presentations. Religious accommodations must be signaled to the professor prior to any missed class. No official exam (April) will be arranged independently from Carleton official exam scheduling services. Excuses related to problems with computers or printers will not be accepted, particularly on day of submission (please plan ahead). The grade for any assignment (oral or written) that is not completed or handed in on the due date will be reduced by 10% per day. No assignment sent by email or fax will be accepted.

- Formal Exams

Students are expected to be available for the duration of a course including the examination period. Dates and deadlines are made available to students in the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar well in advance of registration. No formal examinations will be informally accommodated. All deferral requests have to go through the registrar's office: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/special-requests/deferral/>

- Requirements for written and oral work

Written work that is not well presented and typed will be refused by the professor and subject to the same penalty as late assignments. No assignment sent by email or Fax will be accepted, except in cases of force majeure duly justified.

• Final grades

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

ATTENTES PARTICULIÈRES

• Attendance and participation

A student must attend a minimum of 80% of the classes in order to be considered for a passing grade for that semester. Failure to meet this requirement could result in a failing grade. If there is minimal preparation/participation, the student may not develop the necessary skills for French communication, which will result in a low grade. This course will only generate full benefits if attendance is faultless, participation fully activated, investment of time motivated, thoughtful and committed. Absentees are responsible for missed class, under any circumstances. They are responsible for assignments due on the missed day. They should consult with students first, and, if necessary, meet the professor during office hours or scheduled appointment. They are advised to arrange to have someone drop off their homework the day it is due.

The following are general guidelines the professor will follow in assigning the weekly preparation/participation grade. Exact preparation/participation points within the specified ranges are assigned based on individual professor expectations. A student assigned a grade of "8.5", for example, but expecting a grade of "9" or "10", should talk to the professor about his or her participation expectations for receiving a higher preparation/participation grade. If a student misses one or more of the criteria listed, the student may get a lower grade.

- ❖ 9-10 points -- Used only French and spoke often during class period. Volunteered very often and contributed to class discussion in a meaningful way. Listened attentively and responded to others. Was very well-prepared for class.
- ❖ 8-8.5 points -- Used French and spoke often during class period. Participated actively in group work. Volunteered quite often and contributed to class discussion in a meaningful way. Listened attentively and responded to others. Was well-prepared for class overall.
- ❖ 7-7.5 points -- Used mostly French but used English on occasion. Spoke fairly often during class period. Participated actively in group work. Volunteered rarely. Listened and responded generally to others. Was mostly prepared for class.
- ❖ 5-6.5 points -- Used quite a bit of English on several occasions during group work and/or whole class discussion OR didn't speak often. Not very engaged in group activities. Did not volunteer during classroom discussion. Seemed quite unprepared for class.
- ❖ 0-4.5 points -- Used more English than French OR did not speak during class. Was not engaged in group activities and/or was distracting to others or got off-topic during group activities. Chatted with classmates or daydreamed during class activities. Obviously did not prepare at all for class.
- ❖ 0 will be systematic for the following: did other homework, slept, arrived late, left class earlier...

- Services de soutien écrit et oral

L'utilisation des services de soutien offerts par le département de français est fortement recommandée, car cela vous permettra de mieux préparer vos travaux. Voir le site : <https://carleton.ca/french/beyond-the-classroom/> et suivre les liens.

AUTRES RÈGLEMENTS FACULTAIRES

PLAGIATS

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs." Plagiarism is a serious offence that cannot be resolved directly by the course’s instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of "F" for the course.

Be aware that in languages courses, the following are considered to be acts of plagiarism:

- copying from any source (paper or electronic) including online translators;
- paraphrasing from any source (paper or electronic) including online translators, without quotation mark and or appropriate referencing;
- having someone else compose all or parts of your assignment;
- passing off someone else’s oral or written assignment/presentation as your own.

ACCOMMODEMENTS (ACCOMMODATIONS)

Requests for Academic Accommodation

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

Religious obligation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation or contact your PMC coordinator to send your instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term. You must also contact the PMC no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your instructor as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. carleton.ca/pmc

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and its survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>
