DÉTAILS DU COURS

Course delivery

- This section of FREN 1100 will be held on campus, in person. You are required to attend classes and to come prepared (having completed the assigned work prior to the class).
- In language classes, informal assessments and feedback on students' in-class performance are conducted on a near-daily basis to ensure a good grasp of vocabulary, structures, grammar, and oral expression (pronunciation and fluidity). Attending class will give you the opportunity to practice your oral French and you should be present to the best of your ability. Class attendance counts toward the Attendance and Participation requirements.
- Course content will be posted to Brightspace and you are responsible for reading content, watching videos and completing exercises posted.

SITUATION SANITAIRE COVID-19

All members of the Carleton community are required to follow COVID-19 prevention measures and all mandatory public health requirements (e.g. wearing a mask, physical distancing, hand hygiene, respiratory and cough etiquette) and mandatory self-screening prior to coming to campus daily.

If you feel ill or exhibit COVID-19 symptoms while on campus or in class, please leave campus immediately, self-isolate, and complete the mandatory symptom reporting tool. For purposes of contact tracing, attendance will be taken in all classes and labs. Participants can check in using posted QR codes through the cuScreen platform where provided. Students who do not have a smartphone will be required to complete a paper process as indicated on the COVID-19 website.

All members of the Carleton community are required to follow guidelines regarding safe movement and seating on campus (e.g. directional arrows, designated entrances and exits, designated seats that maintain physical distancing). In order to avoid congestion, allow all previous occupants to fully vacate a classroom before entering. No food or drinks are permitted in any classrooms or labs.

For the most recent information about Carleton's COVID-19 response and required measures, please see the University's COVID-19 webpage and review the Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\). Should you have additional questions after reviewing, please contact covidinfo@carleton.ca

Please note that failure to comply with University policies and mandatory public health requirements, and endangering the safety of others are considered misconduct under the Student Rights and Responsibilities Policy. Failure to comply with Carleton's COVID-19 procedures may lead to supplementary action involving Campus Safety and/or Student Affairs.

PRÉREQUIS, PLACEMENT, INSCRIPTIONS

Prerequisites and preclusion

Grade of C or higher in FREN1002 or Placement test (https://edc.carleton.ca/french_placement/) on Carleton Central before registering. Precludes additional credit for FREN 1110.

Placement

Attendance is mandatory on the first day of classes. The instructor will evaluate you on that day to confirm that FREN 1100 is the appropriate course for you. If the level is judged to be inappropriate, your instructor will recommend a course that meets your needs.

A change of level will only be taken into consideration if a recommendation form is emailed by the instructor to the French Department Office. Enrolment permitting, recommended changes will be considered by the French Department Office until September 17, 2021.

Students who are francophone or who were required to take a higher level in their self-assessment result (more than 140) will not be permitted to remain in this course.

Students cannot go backwards in a sequence of levels in language courses.

Registration

As per official regulations in the Undergraduate Calendar, September 22, 2021 is the last day for registration and course changes for fall term and fall/winter courses.

DESCRIPTION DU COURS, OBJECTIFS D'APPRENTISSAGE, RÉSULTATS D'APPRENTISSAGE ET ATTENTES PARTICULIÈRES

Description du cours (Course description)

Taught in French. Emphasis on speaking, listening, reading and writing skills. Oral presentations, discussions, interviews, reading of novels and magazine articles, listening activities, grammar exercises, compositions. Attendance and participation are compulsory. Limited enrolment. No auditors. Oral interaction required. Lecture, six hours a week.

Please note: In order to increase progress, students will need to engage independently in language learning outside the official class hours. For success in this intensive course, we expect students to spend at least ten hours a week studying the material out-of-class.

Section Intensive

This intensive section condenses the content of a year long class into one semester. Students must expect a heavier workload and must be prepared to complete the tests and assignments on time. The instructor will provide detailed instructions to ensure that the course goes smoothly. Support is available and students should take advantage of it to enhance their learning.

This course has attendance requirements and formally scheduled examinations. Students are expected to be available for the duration of a course including the examination period. Dates and deadlines are made available to students in the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar well in advance of registration at <https://calendar.carleton.ca/academicyear/>. No formal examinations will be informally accommodated. All deferral requests have to go through the registrar's office: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/special-requests/deferral/>

AUTRES RÈGLEMENTS FACULTAIRES

Plagiat (Plagiarism)

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment.
- using another’s data or research findings.
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks.
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence that cannot be resolved directly by the course’s instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

Be aware that in languages courses, the following are considered to be acts of plagiarism:

- copying from any source (paper or electronic) including online translators.
- paraphrasing from any source (paper or electronic) including online translators, without quotation mark and/or appropriate referencing;
- having someone else compose all or parts of your assignment;
- passing off someone else’s oral or written assignment/presentation as your own;
- reusing or repurposing your own assignments from previous coursework without appropriate referencing.
