PREREQUISITE, LANGUAGE PLACEMENT, REGISTRATION

PREREQUISITE

Grade of C or higher in FREN 1001 or Placement test \(https://edc.carleton.ca/french_placement/\) on Carleton Central before registering.

PLACEMENT

- All students are required to attend the first two classes for the purpose of confirming placement.
 - Students who fail to attend the first two classes are not guaranteed a space in the program if a change of level is required upon confirmation of placement.
 - Students who fail to attend the first two classes may or may not be reassessed for placement, depending on the instructor's availability. The instructor will evaluate you on that day to confirm that FREN 1002 is the appropriate course for you. If the level is judged inappropriate; your instructor will recommend a course that meets your needs.
- Students cannot go backwards in a sequence of levels in language courses.
- A change of level will only be taken into consideration if a recommendation form is submitted by the instructor to the French Department Office within 24 hours. Enrolment permitting, recommended changes will be considered by the French Department Office until September 19th.
- Please note that the following students will not be permitted to remain in this course: students who are francophone; have lived in a francophone setting; have done French at junior or high school; have scored more than 15 on the Pre-registration Self-Assessment Questionnaire; are judged to be too advanced in language skills after testing during the first week of class.
- Students who are complete beginners may take FREN 1001 or FINS 2105.

REGISTRATION

As per official regulations in the Undergraduate Calendar, Sept 20th is the "Last day for registration and course changes in Fall and Fall/Winter courses."

STUDENTS ARE EXPECTED TO READ MATERIAL AND PROFESSORS ARE NOT REQUIRED TO REPEAT INFORMATION ALREADY PROVIDED AND DISCUSSED.

COURSE DESCRIPTION, COURSE EXPECTATIONS, AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

COURSE DESCRIPTION

- Taught in French for students who have had exposure to French but who have difficulty using it in day-to-day communication. Emphasis on oral expression and comprehension; development of reading and writing skills. Oral practice, oral presentations, interviews, cultural activities, grammar exercises. Attendance and participation are compulsory. Limited enrolment. No auditors. Oral interaction required. Lecture three hours a week.

EXPANDED DESCRIPTION

- The course targets the acquisition of oral competence (listening and speaking). Reading, writing, and interactions with peers is mandatory. Formal grammar points are secondary goals and will be introduced as the need arises.
- Students will learn to listen, repeat, understand, and use the language in its spoken context without recourse to notes, dictionaries, written text, or English.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS

- General:
This is a language course and requires memorization and the ability to produce oral language quickly and without notes or references. In order to increase progress and for success in this course, students will need to
 - actively participate in pairs or larger groups orally both during and outside class hours and
 - engage independently in language learning by spending a minimum of 6-8 hours a week studying the material provided in the lessons outside class hours and before the in-class lessons.

Furthermore, students should practice their oral skills via conversations, website activities, movies, radio, television, interaction with native speakers (French monitors at the Soutien Oral).

- Attendance & Participation
Since dates, days, and hours of classes have been made available to students upon registration, students are expected to be available for each class, and for the duration of the course. In oral language classes, informal assessments and feedback on the student's in-class performance are conducted on a near-daily basis to ensure a good grasp of vocabulary, structures, grammar, and oral expression (pronunciation and fluidity).
 - Attendance and participation are highly recommended, because this course is practical in nature and missing classes or not participating during class correlates to losing valuable French-speaking practice hours.
 - Students who do not come to class nor actively participate on a regular basis can be expected to struggle to master the material which can result in either a low or failing grade.
 - The student can only benefit from this course if they consistently attend, actively participate during class hours, and invest time outside class hours to review and practice the learned content.

- Attendance does not mean participation. Points will be assigned based on both attendance and participation. There will be some activities during class hours and outside class hours that will go towards the participation marks.
- If a student misses class, it is the student's responsibility to inquire with a classmate what material they missed. It is not the instructor's responsibility to repeat information to students who did not attend class. The instructor will repeat the information missed only if a justified reason is provided for the absence.
- Emails
As per university policies, students must only communicate (send emails) to professors via their Carleton account.
- Language of instructions
Students and instructors are expected to only speak in French. However, the instructor will sometimes translate in English to ensure students understand important information. Speaking English in class when not permitted can result in lower marks.
- Feedback and assessments
Feedback on assignments can be provided to students within two weeks after the due date. As per university policies, the oral & written exams in December and April are to be corrected within 10 days after the due date. Feedback will be available after that time frame.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this course, the student is expected to be at or above the A2 level of the Common European framework of Reference for Languages. As a result, they will have developed and improved their listening, speaking, reading and writing proficiency skills in French, as well as their cultural knowledge and should be ready to take the next language course (FREN 1100 French 3).

By the end of this course the student should be able to :

Oral comprehension (native or near-native speed and pronunciation):

- understand approximately 1000 or more basic words;
- accurately identify times, dates, numbers, prices;
- understand questions relating to daily life, family, past events and aspirations for the future;
- understand questions relating to familiar subject matters (current events, recently shared experiences, etc.);
- understand native and non-native speakers at a simple level without too much difficulty;
- identify the main thrust and some details of more complex conversations and presentations;
- identify the main thrust of simple song lyrics.

Oral expression (using short, simple, grammatically correct sentences with pronunciation that is comprehensible to native and non-native speakers):

- provide everyday information when asked or when required;
- ask for information on common subjects;
- ask for clarification or help in order to maintain communication;
- talk about themselves, (their families, their friends, their interests, their past activities, their aspirations) using short, simple, correct sentences;

- ask others about themselves (their families, their friends, their interests, their past activities, their aspirations) using short, simple, correct questions;
- communicate about activities or objects and corresponding times, dates, amounts, prices;
- make utterances with intonation and pronunciation that is comprehensible to native speakers;
- manage a conversation on more complex ideas with some pauses for reflection, reformulation;
- use an active vocabulary of 1000 words;
- provide times or dates of daily or other common activities, to state dates and years relevant to one's life
- compare activities, events, etc.;
- paraphrase, mime, or use other strategies to compensate for vocabulary or grammar gaps, without breaking off the conversation for long periods or switching to English;
- state an opinion on a variety of topics.

Reading comprehension

- read simple texts, short factual articles, and dialogues (150-200 words), along with giving a general summary of the main ideas in writing or orally;
- read a text out loud in appropriately pronounced French with good intonation.

Writing

- write short, simple texts about oneself or a familiar person in grammatically correct French;
- write commonly used words and short structured paragraphs in correct spelling with and without support (dictionary or references);
- write short dictations.

Grammar

- see the contents of Grammaire Progressive du Français niveau débutant.

Language learning skills and strategies

- use a bilingual dictionary for both oral and written communication;
- use alternative means of communicating without falling back on English (mime, draw, request vocabulary, ...);
- develop strategies for memorizing vocabulary and grammar (flashcards, repetition, self-recording, etc....);
- develop the ability to communicate quickly without too much hesitation;
- develop listening and self-correcting skills;
- overcome the fear of making mistakes (mistakes are normal and necessary in language learning) ;
- highlight, take notes, and make lists;
- pay attention

Transferable skills

- use relevant reference materials;
- evaluate and organize one's learning with guidance from the instructor;
- plan and manage time efficiently to get the most out of independent and group study;
- find and use a variety of learning aids, in a variety of media, to consolidate learning;
- work in pairs or groups;
- research and prepare effective oral presentations.

Attendance & Participation

Participation includes active and regular in class participation. A full 5% mark will only be given if a student comes to and participates in ALL classes, completes ALL assignments diligently and respect ALL class rules: no interruption, no conversation in any other language than French, no computer, no cellphones unless asked by the professor.

No Extra credit policy

For reasons of impartiality and fairness to all students, no extra-credit work will be granted as to increase a grade judged too low. Students will be graded according to the section of 'Grade distribution' outlines in this syllabus.

- Passing expectation

In order to pass the course, students must be able to meet at least basic expectations detailed in the Learning outcomes below.

- Final grade

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

- Formal exams

Students are expected to be available for the duration of a course including the examination period. Dates and deadlines are made available to students in the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar well in advance of registration. No formal examinations will be informally accommodated. All deferral requests have to go through the registrar's office : <https://carleton.ca/registrar/special-requests/deferral/>

- Term work, tests and examinations

If a student arrives late for an examination, they will not be given extra time to make up for the time they missed. Specifically, if a student misses a section of an oral exam, they will not be given permission to go back and complete that section. A grade of zero will be given for any section that is missed.

Students who are unable to attend written test\examinations or oral examinations must give prior notice or complete the self-declaration form available on the Registrar's Office website to request academic accommodation.

No reason other than medical or serious family matters will be accepted for missed tests and presentations (a job interview is not a reason to miss a test). Religious accommodations must be signaled to the professor prior to any missed class. A missed oral\written test or exam will receive a grade of zero unless the guidelines stated above are followed. Excuses related to problems with computers will not be accepted, particularly on day of submission (please plan ahead).

- End of Semester Oral Examination:

- The end of semester oral exam is cumulative.
- Students must complete their end of semester oral exam at the scheduled date/time (a schedule will be provided in the month prior to the oral interview).

- If a student misses the end of semester oral exam for a duly documented, justified reason, the missed oral interview must be re-scheduled before the written exam (if a student misses the re-scheduled oral exam, a grade of 0 will be assigned to the missed re-scheduled oral exam).
 - There will be no grade adjustments for a missed end of semester oral exam as oral exam is compulsory.
 - If a student is to miss the end of semester oral exam for a religious reason, an email must be sent to the instructor at least one week in advance and the exam must be re-scheduled before the written exam.
- End of Semester Written Exam
 - End of Semester Written Exam are cumulative in content.
 - All written examinations abide by the university exam policies (arriving late, missing or deferring these examinations).
 - Requirements for written and oral work

The grade for any assignment (oral or written) that is not completed or handed in on the due date will be reduced by 10% per day. All written work must be submitted following all stated guidelines. Work that is poorly presented may be refused by the professor and subject to the same penalty as late assignments

OTHER FACULTY REGULATIONS

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY & COURSE SHARING WEBSITES

Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s). Students registered in the course may take notes and make copies of course material for their own educational use only. Students are not permitted to reproduce or distribute lecture notes and course material publicly for commercial and non-commercial purposes without the express written consent from the copyright holder(s).

“All slides, presentations, handouts, tests, exams, and other course materials created by the instructor in this course are the intellectual property of the instructor. A student who publicly posts or sells an instructor’s work, including video or audio recording of a class, without the instructor’s express consent, may be charged with misconduct under Carleton’s Academic Integrity Policy and/or Code of Conduct, and may also face adverse legal consequences for infringement of intellectual property rights.”

PLAGIARISM & ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source.
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else.
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment.
- using another’s data or research findings.
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks.
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs."

Plagiarism is a serious offence that cannot be resolved directly by the course’s instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of "F" for the course.

Be aware that in language courses, the following are considered to be acts of plagiarism:

- copying or paraphrasing from any source (paper or electronic) including online translators, without quotation mark and or appropriate referencing.
- having someone else compose all or parts of your assignment.
- passing off someone else's oral or written assignment/presentation as your own.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

Carleton is committed to providing academic accessibility for all individuals. Please review the processes for academic accommodation request.

Academic accommodation refers to educational practices, systems and support mechanisms designed to accommodate diversity and difference. The purpose of accommodation is to enable students to perform the essential requirements of their academic programs. At no time does academic accommodation undermine or compromise the learning objectives that are established by the academic authorities of the University.

Requests for Academic Accommodation

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

- Pregnancy obligation
Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website.
- Religious obligation
Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website.
- Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation or contact your PMC coordinator to send your instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term. You must also contact the PMC no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your instructor as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. For more information visit the PMC.
- Survivors of Sexual Violence
As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and its survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: Sexual Violence Prevention & Survivor Support.

- Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom (find the policy here). Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more information, visit the Academic Accommodations website.

MENTAL HEALTH

As a university student you may experience a range of mental health challenges that significantly impact your academic success and overall well-being. If you need help, please speak to someone. There are numerous resources available both on- and off-campus to support you. Here is a list that may be helpful:

PANDEMIC MEASURES

It is important to remember that COVID is still present in Ottawa. The situation can change at any time and the risks of new variants and outbreaks are very real. There are a number of actions you can take to lower your risk and the risk you pose to those around you including being vaccinated, wearing a mask, staying home when you're sick, washing your hands and maintaining proper respiratory and cough etiquette.

Feeling sick? Remaining vigilant and not attending work or school when sick or with symptoms is critically important. If you feel ill or exhibit COVID-19 symptoms do not come to class or campus. If you feel ill or exhibit symptoms while on campus or in class, please leave campus immediately. In all situations, you should follow Carleton's symptom reporting protocols.

Masks: Masks are no longer mandatory in university buildings and facilities. However, we continue to recommend masking when indoors, particularly if physical distancing cannot be maintained. We are aware that personal preferences regarding optional mask use will vary greatly, and we ask that we all show consideration and care for each other during this transition.

Vaccines: While proof of vaccination is no longer required to access campus or participate in in-person Carleton activities, it may become necessary for the University to bring back proof of vaccination requirements on short notice if the situation and public health advice changes. Students are strongly encouraged to get a full course of vaccination, including booster doses as soon as they are eligible and submit their booster dose information in cuScreen as soon as possible. Please note that Carleton cannot guarantee that it will be able to offer virtual or hybrid learning options for those who are unable to attend the campus.

All members of the Carleton community are required to follow requirements and guidelines regarding health and safety which may change from time to time. For the most recent information about Carleton's COVID-19 response and health and safety requirements please see the University's COVID-19 website and review the Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\). Should you have additional questions after reviewing, please contact covidinfo@carleton.ca
