ÉVALUATION

- Grade for preparation/portfolio, attendance, and participation

This is a course held on campus, in person. You are required to attend all classes and to come prepared (having completed the assigned work prior to the class) and ready to actively participate in class discussions and activities. Note that the first sessions of the first two weeks of class are compulsory. The professor will record attendance every session. If there is minimal preparation/participation, the student may not develop the necessary skills for French communication, which will result in a low grade. This course will only generate full benefits if attendance is faultless, participation fully activated, investment of time motivated, thoughtful and committed. Absentees are responsible for missed class, under any circumstances. They are responsible for assignments due on the missed day. They should consult with students first, and, if necessary, meet the professor during office hours or scheduled appointment. They are advised to arrange to have someone drop off their homework the day it is due.

The following are general guidelines the professor will follow in assigning the weekly preparation/participation grade. Exact preparation/participation points within the specified ranges are assigned based on individual professor expectations. A student assigned a grade of "8.5", for example, but expecting a grade of "9" or "10", should talk to the professor about his or her participation expectations for receiving a higher preparation/participation grade. If a student miss one or more of the criteria listed, the student may get a lower grade.

- ❖ 9-10 points -- Used only French and spoke often during class period. Volunteered very often and contributed to class discussion in a meaningful way. Listened attentively and responded to others. Provided meaningful responses to questions showing that she/he was well-prepared for class.
- ❖ 8-8.5 points -- Used French and spoke often during class period. Participated actively in group work. Volunteered quite often and contributed to class discussion in a meaningful way. Listened attentively and responded to others. Provided meaningful responses to questions showing that she/he was well-prepared for class overall.
- ❖ 7-7.5 points -- Used mostly French but used English on occasion. Spoke fairly often during class period. Participated actively in group work. Volunteered rarely. Listened and responded generally to others. Was mostly prepared for class.
- ❖ 5-6.5 points -- Used quite a bit of English on several occasions during group work and/or whole class discussion OR didn't speak often. Not very engaged in group activities. Did not volunteer during classroom discussion. Seemed quite unprepared for class.
- ❖ 0-4.5 points -- Used more English than French OR did not speak during class. Was not engaged in group activities and/or was distracting to others or got off-topic during group activities. Chatted with classmates or daydreamed during class activities. Obviously did not prepare at all for class.
- ❖ 0 will be systematic for the following: did other homework, slept, arrived late, left class earlier...

- Requirements for written and oral work

The grade for any assignment (oral or written) that is not completed and submitted by the specified deadline (date and time) will be reduced by 5% per day. Written work that is not well presented and typed will be refused by the professor and subject to the same penalty as late assignments. Times New Roman is recommended.

- Term work, tests and examinations

All tests and examinations, including how/when they are scheduled, are subject to rules set out in Regulation 4.0: Examinations of the Undergraduate Academic Regulations, and in Regulation 9.0: Examinations and Term Work of the Graduate Academic Regulations.

A missed oral/written test or exam will receive a grade of zero unless the guidelines stated above are followed. No reason other than medical or serious family matters will be accepted for missed tests and presentations (a job interview is not a reason to miss a test). Religious accommodations must be signaled to the professor prior to any missed class. No official exam (April) will be arranged independently from Carleton official exam scheduling services. Excuses related to problems with computers or printers will not be accepted, particularly on day of submission (please plan ahead). The grade for any assignment (oral or written) that is not completed and submitted by the due date will be reduced by 5% per day. No assignment sent by email will be accepted.

- Formal Exams

Students are expected to be available for the duration of a course including the examination period. Dates and deadlines are made available to students in the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar well in advance of registration. No formal examinations will be informally accommodated. All deferral requests have to go through the Registrar's office. If the absence will last five days or less, submit a short-term accommodation request. If the absence will last more than five days, you must submit a long-term accommodation request.

- End of Semester Oral Examination

- The end of semester oral exam is cumulative.
- Students must complete their end of semester oral exam at the scheduled date/time (a schedule will be provided in the month prior to the oral interview).
- If a student misses the end of semester oral exam for a duly documented, justified reason, the missed oral interview must be re-scheduled before the written exam (if a student misses the re-scheduled oral exam, a grade of 0 will be assigned to the missed re-scheduled oral exam).
- There will be no grade adjustments for a missed end of semester oral exam as oral exam is compulsory.
- If a student is to miss the end of semester oral exam for a religious reason, an email must be sent to the instructor at least one week in advance and the exam must be re-scheduled before the written exam.

- Final grades

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

AUTRES RÈGLEMENTS FACULTAIRES

Plagiarism & Academic Integrity

The University Academic Integrity Policy defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one's own.” This includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, artworks, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, material on the internet and/or conversations.

Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

- any submission prepared in whole or in part, by someone else, including the unauthorized use of generative AI tools (e.g., ChatGPT);
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, paraphrased material, algorithms, formulae, scientific or mathematical concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another's data or research findings without appropriate acknowledgement;
- submitting a computer program developed in whole or in part by someone else, with or without modifications, as one's own; and
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another's work and/or failing to use quotations marks.
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs."

Plagiarism is a serious offence that cannot be resolved directly by the course's instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of "F" for the course.

Be aware that in languages courses, the following are considered to be acts of plagiarism:

- copying from any source (paper or electronic) including online translators and AI;
- paraphrasing from any source (paper or electronic) including online translators, without quotation mark and/or appropriate referencing;
- having someone else compose all or parts of your assignment;
- passing off someone else's oral or written assignment/presentation as your own;
- reusing or repurposing your own assignments from previous coursework without appropriate referencing.

Policy on AI

Since writing, analytical, and critical thinking skills are part of the learning outcomes of this French language course, all writing assignments should be prepared by students. Submission of any work written, developed, created, or inspired by ChatGPT or any other generative artificial intelligence is not permitted and will be treated as plagiarism.

DISCLAIMER

Language is fundamental to the human experience, and literature reflects an unlimited potential of human experiences. In our studies of French language and French-language literatures, we are exposed to a diversity of human realities from the past and present. Human realities range from the sublime to the horrendous. For the latter, we need only think of genocide, slavery, racism, sexism and other forms of discrimination, exploitation and persecution, all of which are products of humanity. To hide these would be to present an untrue picture of humanity and human history, which would be anathema to the academic enterprise. In our courses, there is sometimes content and language that are emotionally and intellectually challenging to engage with. You should be aware of this. When this happens, we take a scholarly approach to the problem and define and contextualize it, together as a community of learning. As a department, we are committed to maintaining a safe space of intellectual growth for all students, and co-discovery with course instructors.

COURSE MATERIALS AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments, and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s). Students registered in the course may take notes and make copies of course material for their own educational use only. Students are not permitted to reproduce or distribute lecture notes and course material publicly for commercial and non-commercial purposes without the express written consent from the copyright holder(s).

“All slides, presentations, handouts, tests, exams, and other course materials created by the instructor in this course are the intellectual property of the instructor. A student who publicly posts or sells an instructor’s work, including video or audio recording of a class, without the instructor’s express consent, may be charged with misconduct under Carleton's Academic Integrity Policy and/or Code of Conduct, and may also face adverse legal consequences for infringement of intellectual property rights.”
