PLEASE NOTE: PREREQUISITE, PLACEMENT, REGISTRATION

PREREQUISITES AND PRECLUSION:

- FREN 1002 or Placement test (https://edc.carleton.ca/french_placement/) on Carleton Central before registering.
- Precludes additional credit for FREN 1110.

PLACEMENT:

- Attendance is mandatory on the first day of classes. The instructor will evaluate you on that day to confirm that FREN 1100 is the appropriate course for you. If the level is judged to be inappropriate, your instructor will recommend a course that meets your needs.
- A change of level will only be taken into consideration if a recommendation form is signed by the instructor and presented in person to the French Department Office (Dunton 1602) within 24 hours. Enrolment permitting, recommended changes will be considered by the French Department Office until May 13, 2019.
- Students who are francophone or who were required to take a higher level in their self-assessment result (more than 140) will not be permitted to remain in this course.
- Students cannot go backwards in a sequence of levels in language courses.

REGISTRATION

As per official regulations in the Undergraduate Calendar, May 13th is the "Last day for registration and course changes for early Summer courses".

1. DESCRIPTION DU COURS, RÉSULTATS D'APPRENTISSAGE ET ATTENTES PARTICULIÈRES

DESCRIPTION DU COURS

Taught in French. Emphasis on speaking, listening, reading and writing skills. Oral presentations, discussions, interviews, reading of novels and magazine articles, listening activities, grammar exercises, compositions. Attendance and participation are compulsory. Limited enrolment. No auditors. Lecture, twelve hours a week.

Please note: In order to increase progress, students will need to engage independently in language learning outside the official class hours. For success in the course, we expect students to spend at least ten hours a week studying the material out-of-class.

RÉSULTATS D'APPRENTISSAGE (COURSE OUTCOMES)

By the end of this course, students are expected to have acquired most of the competencies of the B1 level of the Common European framework of reference for Languages. As a result, they will have developed and improved their listening, speaking, reading and writing proficiency skills in French, as well as their cultural knowledge and should be ready to take the next language course (FREN 2100) or any one of the 2100 level French courses.

2. ÉVALUATION ET NATURE DES TRAVAUX

ÉVALUATIONS

•Language of instruction

Students and instructors are expected to speak only French in the classroom. Speaking English in class can result in lower marks.

•Attendance and participation

A student must attend a minimum of 80% of the classes per semester. Failure to meet this requirement could result in a failing grade in participation and in other in-class assignments, especially those involving group work.

•Term work, tests and examinations

Students who are unable to attend in-class written tests/examinations or oral examinations must give prior notice and be fully supported by a medical certificate or other appropriate documentation.

No reason other than medical or serious family matters will be accepted for missed tests, assignments and presentations, and medical or other documentation must be provided. The professor must be notified of religious or medical accommodations prior to any missed class and as soon as the dates for accommodations are known. Excuses related to problems with computers or printers will not be accepted, particularly on day of submission (please plan ahead).

The grade for any assignment (oral or written) that is not completed or handed in on the due date will be reduced by a minimum of 10% per day, or more, as specified on the instructions for the assignment. No assignment sent by email or fax will be accepted.

A missed oral/written test or exam will receive a grade of zero unless the guidelines stated above are followed.

•Requirements for written and oral work

- o Written work must be submitted on proper paper and following all stated guidelines and format (docx, pdf, etc.). Work that is poorly presented (e.g. not stapled, not typed, etc.) may be refused by the professor and subject to the same penalty as late assignments.
 - o Oral assignments must be submitted in the required format (e.g. mp3, mp4, ...)
- Details for assignments will be specified by each course instructor.

•Final grades

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

5. AUTRES RÈGLEMENTS FACULTAIRES

PLAGIAT (PLAGIARISM)

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one's own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another's data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another's works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs."

Plagiarism is a serious offence that cannot be resolved directly by the course's instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of "F" for the course.

Be aware that in languages courses, the following are considered to be acts of plagiarism:

- copying from any source (paper or electronic) including online translators;
- paraphrasing from any source (paper or electronic) including online translators, without quotation mark and or appropriate referencing;
- having someone else compose all or parts of your assignment;
- passing off someone else's oral or written assignment/presentation as your own;
- reusing or repurposing your own assignments from previous coursework without appropriate referencing.

ACCOMMODEMENTS (ACCOMMODATIONS)

Requests for Academic Accommodation

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

Religious obligation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation or contact your PMC coordinator to send your instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term. You must also contact the PMC no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your instructor as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. carleton.ca/pmc

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and is survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist.
