GEOD@C 2022 - Code of Conduct

This coding event is a community event intended for learning, collaboration, and engagement in the data science community. This event is open to all and we value the participation of each individual and want everyone involved to have an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Accordingly, all staff and participants are expected to show respect and courtesy to others throughout the event. To make clear what is expected, all staff, participants, volunteers, mentors and judges in the event are required to conform to the following Code of Conduct. Organizers will enforce this code throughout the event.

Be Respectful Be kind to others. Do not insult or put down other attendees. Behave professionally. Remember that harassment and racist, sexist, or exclusionary jokes are not appropriate for this event*. *Harassment includes offensive verbal comments related to gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, religion, sexual images in public spaces, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention.

Be Thoughtful In the spirit of education and inclusiveness, there may be minors participating in the event. Keep this in mind when speaking.

Be Open We welcome attendees from all backgrounds. This event is about increasing the overall amount of learning, partnership, and engagement in the data science community.

Be Awesome Do your best and believe in yourself. Participants violating these rules may be asked to leave the event at the sole discretion of the organizers. Thank you for helping us make this a welcoming, friendly place for all.
