Course Description

Urbanization and migration are deeply interconnected processes. This special seminar on “Migration, Citizenship, and the City” explores the connections between migration, citizenship and belonging, and the urban. Drawing on contemporary scholarship in the field of Urban Geography, we will examine the historical processes of labour migration and city building, the relationship between national immigration policy and municipal governance, and how racialized identities are produced through urban space. We will also explore the conflicts and correlations between movements for migrants’ rights and the meaning of citizenship, critically engaging with concepts such as “urban citizenship” and “The Right to the City.”

Course Goals

The goals of this course are to:

- Examine the relationship between migration and urbanization
- Investigate how migrant identities and forms of citizenship are produced in, and through, urban space
- Analyze how migration and immigrant communities have shaped cities and urban life
- Explore contemporary research and debates in the field of Urban Geography

Course Readings

A list and schedule of required readings will be provided at the beginning of term. Course readings will be available online through Ares, Carleton’s electronic reserve system, or through CuLearn.

Evaluation

Distribution of Marks

Participation	20%
Pop Reading Quizzes	15%
Assignment #1	10%
Discussant	15%
Final Project	40%
Total	100%

Please note: Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

A Note on Participation

Students are expected to come to EVERY class prepared to discuss the readings and fully participate in classroom activities. Participation will be evaluated as a combination of:

- Attendance (a simple tally of the number of classes attended); and
- Participation (a qualitative assessment of your contribution to class: come prepared, on time, raise questions, actively engage in discussions, bring in relevant materials to share with your peers, complete voluntary activities when requested)

A Note on Reading Quizzes

To encourage active and engaged reading of the assigned course materials, pop quizzes relating to the readings will take place throughout the term. These pop quizzes will consist of multiple choice or short answer questions. There are no “make up” quizzes, but the lowest grade of all the quizzes given throughout the term will not count toward your final grade.

Grades

In accordance with the Carleton University Calendar, the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100 B+ = 77-79 C+ = 67-69 D+ = 56-59
A = 85-89 B = 73-76 C = 63-66 D = 53-56
A - = 80-84 B - = 70-72 C - = 60-62 D - = 50-52 F = Below 50

WDN = Withdrawn from the course

ABS = Student absent from final exam

DEF = Deferred (See above)

FND = (Failed, no Deferred) = Student could not pass the course even with 100% on final exam.

Final grades are subject to the Dean’s approval.

University Regulations Regarding Cheating and Plagiarism

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs."

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of "F" for the course.

Deferred Assignments and/or Grades

Only official deferrals petitioned through the Office of the Registrar will be honored. If you are unable to complete the term project or assignments or participate in class because of illness or other circumstances beyond your control, you may apply within five working days to the Registrarial Services Office for permission to extend a deadline. Permission can be granted only if the request is fully and specifically supported by a medical certificate or other relevant documents.

Requests for Academic Accommodations

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>

Religious obligation: write to the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send your course instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable).

After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your instructor to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable) at <http://www2.carleton.ca/pmc/new-and-current-students/dates-and-deadlines/>

You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>

Academic Standing and Conduct

Students must familiarize themselves with the regulations concerning academic standing and conduct in the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar. This document can be accessed online at:

<http://www.carleton.ca/calendars/ugrad/current/>

Policy on Late Assignments and Papers

Late assignments and papers will be penalized by 5% per day. All assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date. Assignments submitted after the beginning of class will receive late penalties.

Drop Date

The last day for academic withdrawal from Fall term courses is December 9th.

Some Notes on Email Communication and Office Hours

Students are encouraged to attend the instructor's office hours to discuss questions and concerns about the course, readings, or assignments.

Please note that students are expected to use their Carleton email addresses or the email function on cuLearn for all communications regarding the course. It is important to include the course code in the subject line of all emails to the instructor.
